Scriptures and Doctrine :: Restoration of Eve's sin

Restoration of Eve's sin, on: 2015/5/13 15:39

In one of my studies, I recently came across this gem.

Christ came to 'restore all things' and this was a neat restoration, that I've never seen until today.

Quote:
----------at his Last Supper, Jesusâ€™ actions recall Eve when she took the fruit of the tree, gave it to Adam, and ate it with him (Gen 3:6). Victor Hamilton comments on the â€œdistinctive sonant structure in this verseâ€• in the phrase
×•Ö·×ªÖ¼Ö´×§Ö¼Ö·×— ×žÖ´×¤Ö¼Ö´×¨Ö°×™×•Ö¹ ×•Ö·×ªÖ¼Ö¹×•×›Ö·×œ ×•Ö·×ªÖ¼Ö´×ªÖ¼Öµ×Ÿ ×'Ö¼Ö·×•Ö¾×œÖ°×•Ö´×™×©×•Ö¸×"Ö¼ ×¢Ö´×žÖ¼Ö¸×"Ö¼ ×•Ö·×™Ö¼Ö¹×•×›Ö·×œ, â€œshe took from its fruit and ate it; and she also gave some of it to her husband with her, and he ate itâ€•:

The first four wordsâ€"of which three are waw-consecutive imperfectâ€"contain six instances of doubled consonantsâ€"â€œand she took,â€• wat-tiqqa hÂ£; â€œof its fruit,â€• mippiryoâ€š; â€œand she ate,â€• wattoâ€žÃ¡kÂ£al; â€œand she gave,â€• wattitteâ€žn. Such â€œextremely difficult pronunci ation â€¦ forces a merciless concentration on each word.â€•45

It is interesting to consider how this language is similar to the solemn verbal formula of remembrance in the Lordâ€™s Supper. When Jesus â€œtakes â€• the bread and cup, â€œgivingâ€• them to his disciples, instructing them to â€œtakeâ€• and â€œeatâ€• and drink, all of them together, the NT acc ounts of the Last Supper use the same verbs that the LXX used to translate Eveâ€™s taking of the fruit in Gen 3:6 (Matt 26:26-27; Mark 14:22-24; Luk e 22:17-20; 1 Cor 11:23-26).46 It seems reasonable, then, that in the NT accounts of the Last Supper Jesus is presented as offering his body and bloo d to his disciples as the remedy for original sin, which would also be consistent with the more immediate Passover imagery there of the substitutionary lamb.
