

Evangelism And Christ's Coming By J. Wilbur Chapman

~Other Speakers S-Z: Classic Christian Writings:

I have never spoken in a mission, toiled as an evangelist or preached in a pulpit, that I did not feel that the service might bring the last man, the Church would be completed, and the Lord should come. With such an inspiration as this, who would not be a minister of the Gospel? I can say in truth that I would rather preach than be a king upon his throne.

I should be utterly discouraged if I did not believe that all the wrongs in this world would be righted by the return of the Lord Jesus Christ. He may come before the sun goes down. Would you like Him to find you doing what you are doing now?
