What is wrong with me?! Is this an addiction? I just really enjoy reading... and this is the list I look forward to be reading over the next year or two...

I constantly must remind myself to take heed of Solomon's advice,

Quote:
-----12And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

14For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

-ECC. 12

Hey there is nothing wrong with that! And judging from the subject matter of your library, you are putting your enjoyment to good use.

Sure, book knowledge will never bring the real answers to our souls. It can never replace fellowshiping wit the Word, reading the scriptures, nor can it suffice for actual lived truth...but we've been given intellects for a reason.

Some people might wonder how you read so much. My guess is you don't watch much television. I also suspect you carry a book with you wherever you go, making sure to use those few minutes waiting in line, a work break, ect.

Books are portable conversations about the subject matters we are curious about. Gutenberg invented a good thing!

May I recommend "the road to reality", "Revolution in world missions", and "reflecting his image". All by K.P. Yohannan. Such wonderful and challenging books.

I will also check some on your list. thanks.

Please post more as you get a chance.

Here's a quote from A W Tozer that says it all, is worth framing, posting in the Christian biography section of your church library, and simply explains why some are "driven" to read:

from pg 15 of this edition (about the middle of the first chapter) of The Pursuit of God

"Come near to the holy men and women of the past and you will soon feel the heat of their desire after God. They mourned for Him, they prayed and wrestled and sought for Him day and night, in season and out, and when they had found Him the finding was all the sweeter for the long seeking."

You can read and perhaps learn from in a small volume of words what that individual learned in a lifetime.

Welsh revival Library (2 Cd sets that are available from www.revival-library.org in the UK or I have seen them on ebay for a fraction of the cost, nevertheless a superb collection of revival material at any cost including lots of out o

General Topics :: Calling All Bookworms

f print books and articles

E M Bounds- wrote far too many books on prayer to ever list (prayer and revival go hand in hand- can't be interested in revival without being burdened for prayer)

R A Torrey- How To Pray
The Baptism of the Holy Spirit (Moody always had him preach his sermon on this)

E G Carrie- Praying Hyde (a must read classic on prayer)

Samuel Chadwick- The Path of Prayer

D L Moody- Prevailing Prayer

Rosalind Goforth- How I Know God Answers Prayer

Sammy Tippit- The Prayer Factor

George Mueller- several bios were written by others plus he wrote his own story

Norman Grubb- Rees Howells Intercessor

Dr & Mrs Howard Taylor-Hudson Taylor's Spiritual Secret

V Raymond Edman- They Found the Secret

Tommy Tenney- God Chasers

Jim Cymbala- Fresh Wind Fresh Fire

Roy Hession- Calvary Road

A W Tozer- Lots of good books but especially Rut, Rot or Revival haven't even mentioned C H Spurgeon etc, etc, etc.....said too much already

BIBLE STUDY

-Unglers Bible Handbook

-Unglers Bible Dictionary

-Websters 1828 Dictionary(will be getting soon!)

-Smiths Bible Dictionary

-Crudens Complete Concordance(best thing besides a strong's)

-The Ryrie study Bible(I use for commentary)

-The King James Companion(Defines Archaic words, can find on chick.com)

-Gideon King James Bible(One of those hard covers you can find in the hotels I use because it has no misleading chapter heads or references, just pure text)

Devotionals

-Oswald Chambers- My utmost for his highest I'll list the books I own later. Let us all chip in and list our study materials, we could profit from maybe some book we haven't heard of yet. Good post chuck :)

I would add some "must read" books by Watchman Nee:

- The Normal Christian Life (on Romans 5,6, 7, and 8)
- The Glorious Church
- The Normal Christian Church Life
- Sit Walk Stand (on Ephesians)
- Spiritual Reality or Obsession
- How to Study the Bible
- The Ministry of the Word
- The Breaking of the Outer Man for the Release of the Spirit-
- The Orthodoxy of the Church (on the 7 Churches in Revelation and their prophetic significance in Church History)

The best I have read are:

Purpose in Prayer, EM Bounds

- Almost every page has something to highlight.

The Charismatic Movement, John R Rice

- The section on the baptism of the Holy Ghost is excellent.

Prayer; Asking and Receiving, John R Rice

- How to on prayer that is a cornerstone of reference for the Christian library.
