I believe it essential that we view our lives as nothing but seeds, and that we must be ready to die so that God may be glorified. For only when the seed is buried, may fruit come forth. We Christians are too concerned about keeping our lives and having God as well.

How many here believe in Christ ? To truly believe Christ is Lord, that means this world is nothing but the first step towards eternity.

Do we really believe that ? Then where is our concern for the lost souls ? What have you done today to reach the lost ?

150,000 people die everyday, and the majority go to hell. Are you ready to die for the sake of Christ ?

It's time to step our game up. Satan is walking around like a prowling lion, seeking those he may devour. Christians are tip-toeing around afraid to step on toes, afraid to offend people, afraid to die.

You'll lose your money, you'll lose your friends, you'll lose your home, you'll lose your job, you'll lose your pride, you'll lose everything. For the sake of knowing Christ, they're dung anyway.

If God is for us, who can be against us ?

Don't just preach it. Live it.

Re: A call to die

Thankyou for making the distinction between witnessing and being a witness.

Please pray that the Lord will grant me more grace to die to everything that hinders my walk with Him.

Thankyou for your thread...

God bless you and your family,

Richie

It is not a call but a certainty, Praise God. It was a call for Jesus Christ. That call of the Cross was the greatest outpouring of Love that any being could give, except the Love of a Father watching a perfect Son, be crucified, even in that, it be pleasing to Him to kill His Son to purchase us, His risen new birthed in us son, by The Christ and His Seed, Incorruptable born again in us. That is a Love that we cannot even fathom, maybe some day we will completely understand it.

May God reveal this love to each of us, that we might Love God and each other as the Son loved His Father and us and gave His life for us, that we might share suffering for His sake, being baptized into His suffering. Rom 6:3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into His death? We were crucified with Christ. Gal 2:20 We are raised unto Glory with Him as He is. Eph 2:6 And hath raised up together, and made sit together in heavenly in Christ Jesus:

Col 2:12 Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised Him from the dead.

Hbr 2:9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that He by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

Rom 8:17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with , that we may be also glorified together.

Phl 1:29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on Him, but also to suffer for His sake;

For the Love of God in Christ Jesus: Phillip
