The Incandescent Man

Ravenhill speaks on revival and John the Baptist. The message really doesn't stay on course in the bible study but rather He preaches from a burden to see revival in the church. This message is well worth hearing it will spark a desire in your heart to pray for revival in our day.

wonderful sermon by a incredible man...!!! i really dont know what words do describe him....but he knows god... he says we in one sermon we need 100 john the baptist to every country... thats true...but i think if we were to get even 100 men like ravenhill...that would do some serious damage to the devil...

i pray god will raise up men who can preach like this here in sweden... god knows we need it desperaly... the most wonderful thing about it is that leonard ravenhill makes me wanna know god soooooooooo much more than i do....he makes me wanna go so much deeper than i im... he inspires me to seek the living god... and i think we all need that.... so many are satisfied with a little... i wanna know god!!! the fulness... i wanna enter in...

gods peace to you... and i pray many will join me to seek after the god this man seekt...

Leonard Ravenhill's messages always deeply reach my heart and move me! He may be the only preacher that I have never disagreed with on anything. I think every Christian should listen to all of his messages at least five times each. And read all his books at least twice. But don't just listen to it, live it!

Yeah i just listened to it then, i enjoyed it greatly. Very edifying sermon as usual.

I love it when preachers DONT preach what the congregants "want to hear", but only what God wants them to hear....wh ich is "what they NEED to hear."

God bless u all!

ciao
