I would like to search sermons by star ratings. Thus I could review all the sermons people have given a 5 star rating.

Is there a way to do this?

Thanks.

It would be a good enhancement to this site to search by others recommendations through the rating system.

I've listened to some of these and they are awesome.

Thx for your recommendations.

I would recommend Richard Wurmbbrand-the faces of God and the Beauty of Nothing.

May we be doers not just sermon listeners.

I will add this to the growing list of recommendations for enhancements to the website. God bless you.

Thx for including it in your list.

BTW.. this site is a excellent example of...
using technological means for Godly ends.

I applaude you pursuing this idea.
I'm richer for it.
