Amen brother. I love music that has "much" scripture in it. I do think there is enough free godly music out there that we don't need to buy many commercialistic Christian albums. Imagine if most Christians just accessed and listened to free godly music from individual Christians. The Christian popculture would be devastated. Hallelujah!

yes, these songs are great another that have blessed me greatly last time is Jeff Wooldridge these songs is so full of GOD that its amazing, i dont think it gets any better than this? and when i think of the difference, what God has done in me, two years ago i listened to the most filthy and sinful music imaginable, when i think of what i listened to back then i shiver, but glory to God he cleansed me and gave me a new heart and a purified mind, now i see the incredible holiness and beauty in these songs, and i almost break down and weep for joy everytime i hear this one, be blessed and listen to it
