Does anyone remember which Keith Daniel sermon used to be in the top 10. I cant remember, because I have heard them all and they are all a blessing, but a new friend would like to listen to one of his sermons...and I am trying to figure out which one to send.

Thank you for the help in advance. I also welcome any input about which one is one of your favorites and why.

"Be ye Holy" Was the first KD sermon given to me and I believe it may have been on the top 10.

It could be one of these sermons:
