Hi,

Welcome to SermonIndex.net please do share more about yourself and how you found the website. If you haven't heard this sermon yet I highly recommend it by Paris Reidhead: Ten Shekels and a Shirt. Simply right click on the sermon title and choose "save target as" to save it to your computer desktop.

If you need help with using any parts of the website, let me know.

Soon! I want to speak with the person who recomended the site.

Thanks for the opportunity. It means, you are there!
