Hymn text - posted by z005306, on: 2004/3/9 12:20

Has anyone written out the complete text of the hymn? English is not my parent language. So I would like to listen and read simultaneously.

Ron

Hi Ron!
Welcome!

Are you talking about the "Revival Hymn"?
To my knowledge I don't believe so, but that might be a very worthwhile undertaking.

In fact I will give it a go as time permits, check back later.

Hi Ron and Mike,
I have some time in my hands this week after tomorrow (I've a med school interview. Thank God it's in His hands). If you want I could transcribe this and send it to you via email/PM on Thursday night.

Tell me if I can help. :)

This is a great idea to have a text transcript of this message! For those of you who don't know the 'Hymn' Mike is referring to.. it's the: (<http://www.sermonindex.net/modules/mydownloads/singlefile.php?lid2903>) Revival Hymn (Compilation) I have been burdened to try and design a powerpoint presentation or visuals that I could add to synchronize with the audio so it could be also a movie file on this site. On another note a few people have mentioned to me about the delirious song in the middle of the compilation.. and how it would be better suited if it wasn't there. I have been thinking about this what do you think?

Me think's Egad! No!

I don't see any reason to pull that song out, it is part of the whole. The abrupt cut off of the song to Leonard Ravenhill's "What is your life.." Is genius.

In working on this transcript it is becoming obvious that he put a lot of time and effort into this, besides I believe it was sp irit led.

'Rev 22:19 And if anyone takes away from the Words'

Besides it gives the listener a chance to ponder what has been said.

Absoulutely not. Touch not the Lord's... ;-)

Humph! Some people.. :-D

From another thread:

-----I do highly recommend you check out the Freedom CD that Chris compiled. Also the Revival Hymn is soon becoming a classic and its remarkable that it was made by flesh and blood it's definetely a message for our generation of Christianity

Was it also Chris who created the Revival Hymn?
My memory is fading...

Yes, Chris created the 'Revival Hymn' and also the 'Freedom CD' I know the freedom CD took him around a month full-ti me to complete, I would assume the revival hymn took awhile to do also. But man! as you said before the Spirit of God d irected and helped him immensely in the creation of these means inwhich God can use to awaken sinners and saints. I c onsider our ministries to have partnered together and I would ask that we all at SermonIndex keep Chris and his ministry in prayer. God is working in mighty and amazing ways, all glory belongs to Him.

Thanks for the clarification Greg.

Hi Ron,

Sorry for the confusion, it took me awhile to find the thread that I clipped the quote from, here it is:

The reply by "Bought" is Chris...

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2004/3/14 0:46

I have been thinking about making an audio/visual supplement to the 'Revival Hymn' recording. Everytime I listen to it I can see images in my head of different things so I think I am going to go ahead with this. What an awesome impact this recording is having on the body of Christ and I know the Lord is going to get this out there in a big way. We will never know this side of eternity how much of an impact it has had. If anyone has images or ideas for certain parts of the hymn I would love to hear and see it. :-D

I'd be willing to help edit the video for the 'Revival Hymn'. I would need the help to get all the pictures of these great men and any live video from them preaching, if it is available. I'm at your service and happy to help

Brother yes this would be quite an undertaking but at the same time what a powerful message it would bring to the church. It could be played for youth groups, bible schools, churches, etc. I think the main for its success is it brings us to our knees. Lets keep posted on this Dalin, I think it would be time well spent. And once the audio text transcript is done that could be used powerfully to add emphasis to words on the video. Just start getting high resolution images as they come across you, hmmm on video I wonder if that would be possible? The Alliance denomination archives have never seen a video of A.W. Tozer?? there must be one! and on Paris Reidhead I will have to ask around abit. Exciting stuff!
