Saints,

This is a very powerful compilation that speaks volumes of truth. I have been blessed to hear it and may I walk in all its truth in my own life.

Amen. Dear brother. These are some other great sermons by this speaker. I really hope more people are able to listen to this compilation.

compilations are great way of sharing "highlights" from a sermon, also a great way of introducing people who don't have heard about a speaker... many comps Ive listened to made me go "look" after that speaker, and listen to them more, and i pray someone takes the time to listen to Zac Poonen, if you don't have so much time this comp is only 9 min long... but filled whit truths for a lifetime..

I do highly recommend this to anyone that missed it. Do share what you think of the recording. It has blessed me to "take hold" of that salvation! Oh to be more like Christ everyday is my humble prayer.

This is a really good compilation. I was blessed listening to it.
Excellent message, excellent music, and an excellent balance of both. :-D

I like this message, but the music in the background is annoying.

I'm just curious...Could you define 'annoying'? Do you like any compilations with music in the background? Most of the comps I have heard the music has been either too loud or music I just don't care to listen to. I really do like the balance found in this compilation.

It's annoying because I want to get into the message and this serene music in the back ground doesn't seem to suit this type of message. It's like a baby crying in the middle of an intense sermon, or the sound of water dripping from a tap and your trying to sleep.

And yes, I do like other compliations, I keep the "Revival Hymn" on my desktop.

Thanks for asking.
