

Welcome & Intro :: My intro

My intro - posted by Siobhanta (), on: 2007/4/23 14:15

Grace and peace to you all; brothers and sisters in Christ!

My name is Siobhan, and I hail from Victoria, BC. I have been using this wonderful site as a resource for some fabulous sermons in the past several months, but most of the time I simply listen, and often forget to sign in. I suppose it's about time to introduce myself, and possibly spend some time in the forums! I know that God is using this site to build up His body, and to draw believers into the wonderful truth of His word. Praise His glorious name!! I look forward to many more hours of listening and reading!
