Somebody prayed for me...somebody talked to God for me...Somebody touched the throne of grace... and somebody pleaded face to face and there at the throne they said my name...

Amen!

How many could say this about us?

A missionary, one Sabbath evening, went to the dying-bed of one of his converts from Heathenism. "I understand," said the convert, "that you have been preaching today about heaven. Tomorrow I shall be in heaven, and I shall go right to the Saviour and thank Him for leading you to leave your home in a Christian land, to come and tell us poor darkened heathens about Him and the way to heaven. Then I shall go and sit down by the pearly gate, and wait till you come. Then I shall take you by the hand and lead you to the Saviour, and tell Him, 'This is the man that taught me the way to this happy world.'"
