Does anyone know an old hymn that has this verse in it; "there is a fountain who is the King"? I heard it once when I visited Times Square Church, but I haven't heard it since. I've been searching on the web all morning and having found a thing! I can't remember the melody or any other words...I just remember singing it at Church and being completely amazed! It's such a powerful song!!

Who is the King
Victorious Warrior and Lord of Everything.
