Hi everyone my name is Shelley and I am married to Ironman who lives on this forum so I figured I cant badger him and get him to quit. I might as well join him. He talks about all the goings on on SI ALL the time. I am still trying to figure out my way around to see the posts and things. I have listened to a good number of sermons and enjoy them a great deal. A nybody close to Galveston TX?

Hi Ironwoman. My wife shares the same sentiment about her husband living on this forum. She hasn't joined me yet, though. Too shy I suppose (and busy working at a hospital while her husband "plays" on SermonIndex).

Ahhh, if she only knew!

Funny you should say that. I happen to be an ironing woman. I stay at home and raise our ironkid who is truly her father's child. She is fiercely determined and has courage and energy to go around. She is only 3!!! We have one on the way and Lord knows how he will turn out. We are very excited to have dedicated our kids to the Lord and just pray that they grow up loving the Lord with the child like innocence we only wish we had!
