Krispy, did someone or God show you they were false?

It's a testimony that I have given numerous times on this forum... but the Readers Digest versions is...

Krispy

I just read your Reader's Digest Testimony and I really praise God for what He did in your life and your wife's !!!

It gives big hope to read about people letting the Holy Spirit really guide them to the Truth and the Word.

I really think more time and faith in prayer is needed from Bible-reading Christians for our brothers and sisters who are entangled in false teachings and false churches, not only Mr. Hinn's, but worldwide.

God wants to answer his children !!!

The formula is clear: more Bible, more letting God teach us, more guidance from the Holy Spirit, more Jesus' life in us

GOd bless you all

Jenny
