50 DAYS LEFT UNTIL THE REVIVAL CONFERENCE

Saints,

I have been encouraging brothers and sisters to share rides to come to the conference, there have been some people so far that have taken this route to save on gas money. Also some people have shared accommodations also.

Utilize this forum to post your desire to share a ride or hotel with someone:

the address for the facilities are:

Location

Arlington Avenue Church of God
142 Arlington Ave NW
Canton, OH 44708

and the event will be open at 12:00 noon on Tuesday October 23rd for prayer and registration. The first session begins later that night at 7pm.

for hotels here are a few sites:

I plan on going to the Revival Conference and live a few miles from Harrisburg, PA (off Interstate 76). If anyone is planning on coming that way via a car and would like to give me a ride that would be most appreciated. Just PM me!

Edit: If you are coming via a car, are on a tight budget and cannot find anyone to stay with, I recommend staying at a hostel.. (<http://www.stanfordhostel.com/>) here is one only 45 miles north of Canton, would save you a bunch. ($19 a night)
