Revival Conference Traveling (motels and driving)... - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2007/9/24 1:19

Saints,

If you are driving to the revival conference (www.revivalconference.com) and or staying at a motel in the canton, ohio area, then post your details here ie the city you are driving from, etc. It would be great to see people "share" rides and motels on this thread. I know there are some brothers that are already sharing motels and drives to the conference.

Yes. All the meetings will be recorded in audio and video and available after the event on www.revivalconference.com and www.sermonindex.net freely. There will also be live webcasting available of most of the "main" sessions that you can tune into live in video. That will be available on the www.christian.tv website.

Do pray for the event that God would be present and do a work that no man could do.
