It is after midnight here in the UK but I have such anticiapation in my heart that God is going to use His servant Keith in a special way tonight. Oh for God to pour out His blessing in Canton, on my heart, and each one who is listening. Come, and let us return unto the LORD:... After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.... and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter former rain unto the earth.
Hosea 6:1-3

I am so grateful to God I was able to listen to Bro. Keith's message this evening. Those words burn in my spirit and will c ontinue to challenge me because they were God's words....

It was so encouraging to see how people responded to God's word.

God bless one and all.

"If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

God met us in a powerful way. The presence of God was tangible and God has changed many hearts forever. Brother Keith is truly one of God's "rare" men in our last days.

Praise God for everyone that was able to tune in.

I just watched and listened to my first service of Brother Keith's and already I have such love for that man. I watched the video on this site, A Warning to America and heard things I knew in my spirit to be true but have never heard from a single teacher or preacher.

Where can I find more information about him and other sermons he's given? I'm very new here and haven't checked out the whole site, yet, so I hope to find more here.

Wow, 130 of Brother Keith's sermons? Amazing! This site alone is worth paying for the internet. It's quickly become my favorite website.

The teaching here is like drinking from a deep cup that never empties. I don't know how I'll make it back to work on Monday morning!

The people in the forums are so kind and respectful. I've never seen that on any other forum online, even the so-called Christian ones.

Forgive my boldness, but I really hope people who frequent this site know what a treasure they've found in it! I pray I never get "used" to it, taking it for granted. I thank God He led me to it!

ETA: Where can I learn more about Brother Keith? I couldn't find a website or a ministry that he belongs to. Where is he from?

Hello again brother,

The messages that I recommended you in the Welcome/Intro section were all from Keith Daniel. You can start from there.

Thank you very much, Tears of Joy. I've collected all the links everyone's recommended to me and will surely get to all of them in time. This site is like being a kid in a candy shop!

Thank you again. I appreciate the time you've taken to organize all of these links for me.

Re:, on: 2008/1/12 22:49

Hello Keith,

Kire (Tears of Joy) has already given you a lot of links and you will be able to glean much information from them. Here's a quick bio on Keith Daniel.

He and his family live in Cape Town, South Africa and serve with the African Evangelist Band (a conservative mission in SA). Keith has been coming to America for many years and has an annual fall tour that he does. Here is the thread for last year's tour, http://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic_id=17940&forum=35

The tour is about two months long and is in segments of three day preaching outreaches in various locations across the US. My dad, Don Courville, coordinates this tour and is in the process of putting together the 2008 schedule right now. Last year Keith spoke in Bemidji, MN; I'm not sure how far that would have been from you but perhaps he will go there this year.

The Daniels have a prayer letter that goes out quarterly across the world. It contains Keith's schedule, which is mostly in South Africa and America. If you're interested in it let me know and I could get you added to the list. My church also has a media ministry with all of the messages that brother Keith has preached at our church over the past eight years in dvd, cd, and cassette tape formats.

Brother Keith is without doubt one of the godliest men I have met and had the blessing of knowing. His life radiates with the love of Christ. He spends hours soaking himself in the Word of God and prayer, and has a unique ministry in the quoting of the Word of God in an anointed and powerful way. One of the greatest impacts that his preaching has had on my life would be in the area of quiet time and reading the Word of God, that and the surrendered life.

If you have any further questions please don't hesitate to ask!

Blessings,
Joy

I would be thrilled to receive Brother Keith's newsletter! I thought he sounded South African, but I didn't want to assume. I served on a missions trip to Zambia, and spent a little time in Johannesburg. I may have a few questions, but it's late and I need to try to sleep. I will PM you soon. Thank you, Joy!

God is so good! He's so good that I hate that the word 'good' can even be used to describe anything else! My heart is overflowing with all that I've discovered with this website! Even though this is a difficult time for me, I'm filled with such joy that even the suffering seems so little a price to pay! If I listed every trial, or every suffering, they would all be followed by, "But God...!"
