Saints,

I will be getting the entire archive of the revival conference up in downloadable audio and video format over the next few days, keep checking back to see progress of the addition of these materials.

May God get all the glory and the reward.

Here are some current uploaded sermons from the conference:

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2007/10/27 12:32

bump. More messages will be posted soon, thank you brethren for your patience and prayers.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2007/11/3 8:55

Thank you for your patience saints, I am still waiting to get the video and audio properly setup before I release all the sessions.

Pray it works out easily and soon!

Think 'properly' is better, "soon" we can wait for ;-)

But pray, indeed ...

Thanks, Greg!

These are some incredible messages! Although I was unable to attend, I did view some of the messages online. The faith of my wife and I was stirred tremendously!

:-)

A Keen Awareness of The Church's Loss by Roger Ellsworth by Revival Conference 2007

<http://www.pardoned.net/sermonindex/SID16262.mp3>

--- i love this sermon ... i like any message that makes me take a good long and close look in His spiritual mirror to show me who the real problem is ... Folk say that REVIVAL starts individually, amen, then may God strike us ALL in masse - individually - that somehow collectively we can ALL become aware of our loss ... God help us ---

Let Me Not See My Wretchedness by Carter Conlon by Revival Conference 2007

<http://www.pardoned.net/sermonindex/SID16259.mp3>

--- i found this also to be a great sermon for me take a good long and close look in His spiritual mirror at myself ... Bro C onlon also talks about the sins of the American church, the false gospel of prosperity we've imported even to the poorest of nations, and the religious games we've come to play under our Laodicean blindness ... God help us ---

Show Me Your Glory by Gareth Evans by Revival Conference 2007

<http://www.pardoned.net/sermonindex/SID16261.mp3>

--- i love this conveyance ... i can't call it a sermon because it's not formal ... No pre-set way, form or fashion of delivery .
.. Just real ... As an American i wonder why it's brothers/pastors from other shores that speak to my spirit in ways i don't hear from any American pastors i know of ... i'd say the closest to the "warmth factor" is Charles Stanley, but even he do esn't stir my heart and longing for REVIVAL as say this brother, bro Daniels, and others who seem to call a spade a spa de regarding the speciousness of all things American ... God help me for being so guilty of longing to see what this pasto r longs to see also - what some have come to call our idol of REVIVAL ... God help us ---

The Danger Of Complacency by Don Currin by Revival Conference 2007

<http://www.pardoned.net/sermonindex/SID16260.mp3>

--- This sermon reminds me greatly of a response bro Rookie gave me out of Amos regarding a question i had on Forum about our (America's) reaping of correction ... This is a real warning message, actually to me more like a last minute war ning message ... i feel great sadness from this message, mainly because in it's setting it's like preaching to the choir, folk already on board, when if only it was being preached in so many places it's really needed ... Brother Currin's message to ward the end speaks of our being pro-actively repentant, when from my view the greater majority of us will be re-actively repentant in His corrective chastening ...

The last word he spoke about being careful not to go off into apostasy because of not seeing God "work" in the way we want to see him work really spoke to me ... i don't see renunciation of my faith anywhere in my future at all, but we've all got to be careful of what can happen to us when we take our eyes off Him, we begin to sink, that's why i know it's so imp ortant to keep our eyes on Him ... God help me ... God help us ---

Looking forward to hearing the others! ...

Thank you for your work in this.

Is this what people will find under the left-hand side-menu link to 'Revival Conference', in future?
