People involved in God's work should ask the following questions :

1. Why am I doing this work?
2. Am I doing it with my own intellectual skill?
3. Do I depend on the strength comes from God?
4. Are there any hidden motives?
5. Am I straight forward and sincere?

People of the world may praise you for the good work that you do for God's glory.

But their praise you can not be taken as a measure of your spiritual success.

Your own conscience should be a witness to a spiritual matters.

It is important that Christian should maintain a good conscience.

If you are a real Christian , immoral thoughts have no place in your mind.

Your thoughts are welcome.

John 12:24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

12:25 He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

12:26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honor.
