Short and sweet delta :-P

I have his book, The Gift of Giving and it is Biblically sound and sticks closely to Scripture.

I'm guessing you don't agree with/like him?

I havent read his books

I was abit dubious regarding his position on Israel.
He met Yassar Ararafat 5 times that is why I was bit dubious on him.

Brother,

As I said in the other thread perhaps its more wise to research and think and pray about this much before posting this on the forums. It would be like posting your name on a forum with one line of text and asking people are you a heretic or wrong.

I am not trying to be hard but just setting abit of a precedent here. I do think we all need to be more careful how we use "mens" names in a public forum. We are held accountable for all of our words. Love you brother.

I love RT Kendall. Preaches the Word of God with the power of the Holy Spirit. Shows that you need both Word and Spirit together, or you have no power and God gets no glory.

I have read some of R.T. Kendall's writings before, and I believe that he is teaching truth with scriptural balance.
