

General Topics :: Can Anybody help me with answers from Scriptures for the Emergant Church heresy?Can Anybody help me with answers from Scriptures for the Emergant Church heresy? - posted by deltadom (), on: 2008/3/7 10:44

I need scriptures and quotes telling what the emergant church says and what the bible says?
I need all the information I can get?

Re: Can Anybody help me with answers from Scriptures for the Emergant Church heresy? - posted by ginnyrose (), on: 2008/3/7 10:44

My first reaction to your question is "exactly what doctrine do you want to confront?" Then John 14:6 came to my mind. Jesus says, "I am the Way, the TRUTH and the LIFE, no man cometh to the Father but BY ME." Analyze that for a moment.

Jesus is:

1. The Way....none other.
2. The TRUTH...truth is NOT relative, it is absolute.
3. The LIFE....

And if you want to learn all these things in detail you need to study the life of this man Jesus.

Simple, but few want to do it because they will have to surrender some pet theories, I am afraid.

Blessings,

ginnyrose

Re: Can Anybody help me with answers from Scriptures for the Emergant Church heresy? - posted by poet (), on: 2008/3/7 10:44 go to this website.

(<http://www.deceptioninthechurch.com/>) <http://www.deceptioninthechurch.com/> you can look up just about anything about false doctrine and articles.

Re:, on: 2008/3/7 10:44

You might browse through some of these articles on:

<http://www.christianworldviewnetwork.com/cwnsearch.php?>

Re: Can Anybody help me with answers from Scriptures for the Emergant Church heresy?, on: 2008/3/7 13:12

Don't know if this will help Dom. Hoped so.

http://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?mode=viewtopic&topic_id=21259&forum=35&start=0&viewmode=flat&order=0

Re: - posted by deltadom (), on: 2008/3/7 13:51

I need specific things on Doctrinal Questions such as Heaven and Hell not just quotes! or articles.
I am dealing with people who think that I am taking the emergent church people out of context, I need prayer that god will convict them!! it is on a worship site!

Re:, on: 2008/3/7 14:17

Emergent is not a denomination; nor is it an affiliation of churches on the basis of shared theological commitments. Emergent is a clearing-house for a conversation, an affiliation of friends who, whether as individuals or churches or groups or publishers, want to communicate with one another and explore a vast array of practices and theological concepts.

It's whatever tickles the ears these days!

Katy

Re:, on: 2008/3/7 14:36

It is sometimes useful to compare the emerging church movement with other Christian movements, which emphasize a similar approach to Christianity and inner experience.

The Taizé Community in France parallels the emergent experience in many ways. Traditional symbols in this community such as candles and crosses have intensified importance in creating subjective feelings. Taizé places a greater emphasis on meditation and the experiences derived from the monastic life than they do upon Scripture. They also embrace a religious pluralism that discards notions of eternal judgment. Within the wider Emerging Church there is a growing exploration of a similar kind of monasticism, known as new-monasticism.

Communities such as "Moot" in the UK and "COTA" in the US are examples.

The Religious Society of Friends, although not born from a conflict with modernism, has nonetheless influenced the emerging church movement through mystics such as Richard Foster.

This influence is often seen in the mystical tendencies of emergent worship and devotion.

Some emerging churches mirror the Quaker rejection of church hierarchy while valuing the sacred as a personal, subjective experience, others utilize their particular denominational structures for church leadership.

The house church movement, which has been partly influenced by the Jesus Movement of the 1960s and 70s, is considered to be a "cousin" of the emerging church movement because of its lack of structure. Most of these house churches, however, are quite different from those in the emerging church movement as they are conservative in their theology and structure.

All four of these groups seek fellowship with likeminded groups and value some subjective traditions and experiences. The emerging church movement stands out by its postmodernism as well as its pluralistic dialog with the surrounding culture.

The emergent methodology which relies upon community activism before propositional evangelism has been advocated by many liberal theologians who find propositional evangelism to be a form of arrogant "theological colonialism."

These theologians tend to reduce the Christian mission to an effort to create a more just world (often through socialism) that is environmentally responsible. In 1917 Walter Rauschenbusch presented a lengthy rationale for this approach to Christian mission in his book A Theology for the Social Gospel.

Theologically, the emerging church movement bears many striking similarities to the theology of neo-evangelical Christians such as Langdon Gilkey and David Tracy, shares many beliefs with the more liberal post-Vatican II Catholic theologians such as Karl Rahner, and can trace much of its roots to the teachings of "postliberals" such as George Lindbeck.

In many ways emergent thought resembles that of the iconoclastic Stanley Hauerwas. Eschatology in the movement closely resembles that found in theologians such as Jürgen Moltmann who advocate the "theology of hope."

General Topics :: Can Anybody help me with answers from Scriptures for the Emergent Church heresy?

The emergent approach to interfaith dialogue is similar to earlier discussions of this kind of dialogue as found in authors such as John Hick as well as the "federalist/universalist" approach to pluralistic theology of Ninian Smart.

Some emergent thinkers have also been deeply influenced by postliberal authors such as Walter Brueggemann and Leslie Newbigin. Newbigin, especially, along with fellow missiologist David Bosch, offers alternatively nuanced understandings of dialogue which, nevertheless, do embrace a relativistic epistemology.

Emergent ecclesiology is reminiscent of the "religionless Christianity" proposed by some twentieth century thinkers. NT Wright's eschatology, missiology and ecclesiology have also influenced emerging church theology.

Hope this helps.

Katy

Re: - posted by intrcssr83 (), on: 2008/3/7 16:04

(<http://www.carm.org/emerging.htm>) Here's some stuff by CARM (Christian Apologetics and Research Ministry) that should provide a thorough overview including doctrines, profiles and quotes from those prominent in the movement.

Also, a lecture by Mark Driscoll as someone who's "been there, done that" (<http://www.sebts.edu/chapel/getFile.cfm?FileID396&Downloadtrue>) Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Convergence Conference

If you want a passage of scripture that you can use to refute experience-oriented belief and subjective interpretation of scripture that the emergent "church" is putting forward, try 2 Peter 1:17-20
17For when he received honor and glory from God the Father, and the voice was borne to him by the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased," 18we ourselves heard this very voice borne from heaven, for we were with him on the holy mountain.
19And we have something more sure, the prophetic word, to which you will do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts,
20knowing this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from someone's own interpretation.
21For no prophecy was ever produced by the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

it's What's Coming of it that counts, on: 2008/3/7 16:30

This shows how Diverse this thing is - http://www.faithhousemanhattan.org/faith_house/endorsements.html

(<http://herescope.blogspot.com/2006/08/one-world-one-faith-one-plan.html>) "One World-One Faith - One Plan"

(<http://www.inthenameofpurpose.org/page2.html>) On-line book - "In the name of Purpose"

<http://www.understandthetimes.org/>

The Collapse Of The Emerging Church And The Kingdom Of God

Comment From Understand The Times:

Expect to see another new wave of deception on the spiritual horizon. A concealed iceberg is about to surface.
(<http://blog.beliefnet.com/godspolitics/2008/01/in-search-of-a-label-by-brian.html>) BeliefNet Article
(<http://blog.beliefnet.com/godspolitics/2008/01/in-search-of-a-label-by-brian.html>)

In the upcoming campaign for a new American president, a coalition of pastors heading up social gospel megachurches, Dominionist Pentecostals, Reconstructionists, and naive Evangelicals will surface planning to take the "kingdom" for Jesus.

General Topics :: Can Anybody help me with answers from Scriptures for the Emergant Church heresy?

These enthusiastic leaders lack spiritual discernment and have no concept of the nearness of the coming of Jesus Christ. They are being drawn into the idea of building the "Kingdom of God" so that Christ can return to a converted earth at some future time.

Similar to Rick Warren's "Purpose Driven" Christianity, the social gospel will be in the forefront for this new alliance of kingdom builders. Those opposing such a view will be considered "narrow-minded," "old-fashioned," "crackpots" who spend more time thinking about the "rapture" than they do about doing good unto others.

Also, I believe we can expect to see the emerging church movement fragmenting and polarizing. A few leaders who have been duped by emergent leaders will see the light and withdraw- others of course, will not. Those who continue down the emerging path will become the pied-pipers of the social gospel program that leads the unsuspecting further towards Rome and Babylon.

The following two items will help you to see what is coming.

The Great Awakening

<http://www.powells.com/biblio/9780060558291?&PID=29218>

The Collapse of the Emerging Church

<http://www.emergentvillage.com/weblog/2008-and-the-collapse-of-the-emerging-church>

Re: it's What's Coming of it that counts, on: 2008/3/7 16:48

Anne! WOW Thanks for that. It is explaining even more of what we are talking about on another thread!

All these are working hand in hand for one goal....anti-christ!

Thanks Anne!

Katy

Re:, on: 2008/3/7 22:14

Katy, reading one of those blogs, a quote seemed to really wrap it up.

Quote:

"Andy Moore in the UK predicts, "The phrase Emerging Church will only be used by people who are attacking it, allowing the good work of individual churches to continue under the radar, while really confusing irate Reformed Evangelicals."

Now why he said "reformed" I don't know - but this quote just shows to go ya.

I know "fundamentalist" is a bad word now. Maybe he was just afraid to use that one?

Did you read some of the replies to those blogs though ?

Wow. Second from the bottom of the belief-net site, there was quite a reply by a "teresa" and then the very last one by "I eah", mamamia.

Amazing the responses they get, but that's the way they operate, intentionally. Is by basically "polling" for opinions, moods, perspectives, feelings and working upon those or with them, in order to do as Moore said, continue "under the radar". Politicians do it and businesses do it.

Brother dbm posted a good article from a Business website, that said basically - that businesses should learn how to co nduct business from the Mega-Church leaders.

General Topics :: Can Anybody help me with answers from Scriptures for the Emergant Church heresy?

Maybe we could find that article. It was very good.

Lord Bless!

Re: - posted by deltadom (), on: 2008/3/7 22:24

I need prayer that I will get through these hard headed! I feel like I am trying to hit my head against a brick wall as they say every time I take a statement it is out of context or some other comment it is so frustrating.

If I were warning people about a fire, and said there is a tsunami heading this way, please run else you may die they may end up taking notice

I know we are headed it is just its prevalence, it is frustrating to try and debate!
To people who do not know their bible! and think that I am even taking the bible out of context.

Art Katz says that "Is something that reports to be christ and imitates christ but is not"

A fake note is much more dangerous! Because it looks like the real thing but yet it is not and degrades the actual currency.

The thing I do not like about this movement is so common and in every shop round the country on mass. You can pick up these books and there always on offer.

Billy Sunday said that half truths are dangerous as you do not know which half you will get!
If Jesus turned up for one minute this movement would be history!

Re:, on: 2008/3/7 22:37

Sympathies all the way around brother.

I figure His "sheep hear His voice and won't follow another" - so rather than debate - just keep speaking His Word/Truth, and if they're really His Sheep - they'll hear you.

Maybe not right away. Maybe during the coming storm... but His Word never goes out Void.

You may not see the fruit of what Truths you spoke, but keep watering and the LORD will bring it back to their remembrance when the bottom falls out.

GOD BLESS you !

Re: - posted by caldwell1 (), on: 2008/3/7 23:16

intercssr83 said:
home

Re:
Here's some stuff by CARM (Christian Apologetics and Research Ministry) that should provide a thorough overview including doctrines, profiles and quotes from those prominent in the movement.

Also, a lecture by Mark Driscoll as someone who's "been there, done that" Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Convergence Conference

General Topics :: Can Anybody help me with answers from Scriptures for the Emergent Church heresy?

Checked out these-Great stuff to use to tear down these heresies

Two books are good "Becoming conversant with the Emergent Church" by D.A Carson and "Faith Undone" by Roger Oakland

However I really was blessed by the Mark Driscoll teaching as someone that was immersed in the emergent community saw it was wrong and talks about it to expose it and now He's a solid radical reformed Pastor who wont fit in there molds -This guy is the bomb!,He's definitely not for everyone due to the language he uses to reach the unchurched,But I love t his guy He loves Jesus and thats it, None of the Emergent bologna-Decide for yourself and There are many sourses out t here to give disernment :-)

Re:, on: 2008/3/8 9:42

Quote:

-----Did you read some of the replies to those blogs though ?

Anne, Yes I did. Great link.

It all boils down to 2 Timothy Chapter 3...having a form of Godliness, but denying the Power...from such turn away.

Denying the Power is denying the Deity of Christ, and the Blood of the Cross. To us who are saved

it is the power of God.

The Cross will always be an offence, and from the time of Cain, people have been trying to climb over some other way.

It's all Babel-bolognea!!!!

And yes, I do believe he is using the word Reformed in the same sense as fundamental.

Any Gospel that does not preach SIN, The Cross, and the Blood is a false Gospel...period.

But over time we have changed SIN into:

1. Being emotionally challenged or 2. Diseases
of which we need some 12 step program to overcome.
(has infiltrated many churches over time))

So this infestation of psycho-babel in one form or fashion has been feeding this invisible monster for quite sometime.

Revelation says...Who can fight against it?

Well, we know the wrath of God is coming on all who have rejected the Gospel. AND we know according to Paul, there i s only ONE Gospel, and all others are accursed!

Katy

General Topics :: Can Anybody help me with answers from Scriptures for the Emergent Church heresy?

Re:, on: 2008/3/8 13:01

Quote: "But over time we have changed SIN into:
1. Being emotionally challenged or 2. Diseases
of which we need some 12 step program to overcome.
(has infiltrated many churches over time))

So this infestation of psycho-babel in one form or fashion has been feeding this invisible monster for quite sometime."

Katy, this is so true. This has crossed my mind this year more than ever.

Psychology robs The Lord of His Glory, involvement and sovereignty in our lives.

They want you to focus on self and the LORD heals more when we don't at all.

Thank you for your thought provoking replies.

LORD Bless you Sis.

Re: Can Anybody help me with answers from Scriptures for the Emergent Church heresy?, on: 2008/3/8 16:55

No doubt that the Emergent Church is liken unto a lamb but when it speaks it speaks like a dragon. A lamb is sweet and lovable, follows you where ever you go. When you hold a new born baby in your arms you see how wonderful he is, yet in that little body is all the capabilities of sin waiting to be explored. The Emergent Church is really no different than unregenerate man. He seeks to please God through his own works. It's Cain and Abel all over again.

Re: - posted by ccchhrrriiiss (), on: 2008/3/8 19:41

Hi Katy_didÃ...

Quote:

----- It all boils down to 2 Timothy Chapter 3...having a form of Godliness, but denying the Power...from such turn away.

Denying the Power is denying the Deity of Christ, and the Blood of the Cross. To us who are saved

it is the power of God.

The Cross will always be an offence, and from the time of Cain, people have been trying to climb over some other way.

It's all Babel-bolognea!!!!

And yes, I do believe he is using the word Reformed in the same sense as fundamental.

Any Gospel that does not preach SIN, The Cross, and the Blood is a false Gospel...period.

But over time we have changed SIN into:
1. Being emotionally challenged or 2. Diseases
of which we need some 12 step program to overcome.
(has infiltrated many churches over time))

So this infestation of psycho-babel in one form or fashion has been feeding this invisible monster for quite sometime.

Very true. But unfortunately, most of these sort of "Emergent" churches actually believe that they preach against sin, and preach the "cross" and the shed blood of our Lord.

I once attended a large Assembly of God congregation that slowly morphed from a classical Pentecostal Church (with a n emphasis on holiness) into a modern day "charismania" congregation. A very unhealthy emphasis in the supernatural and the prosperity message caused the congregation to change into one of these modern "seeker" congregations. They stopped preaching against sin or for the need of repentance and a real relationship with Christ. They simply used all sorts of fleshly methods and gimmicks to get people into the doors (including turkey giveaways, door prizes, concerts and plays). The ultimate goal (or "mission") of the Church was simply to grow into a large, involved congregation. They even began to preach that it doesn't matter what a person believes - as long as they are sincere. The worship wa s transformed into a concert – complete with auditions, professional CD sales and “dance teams.”

The ironic thing is that many – including many of the leaders of the church – didn’t see any sort of “change.” But this change was quite dramatic – even to people in the world. Most of the older and long term people left the congregation. The pastor would excuse the simplicity of his sermons as “milk” because of his very young congregation (without realizing that most left because of the milk and worldliness). People who questioned the direction of the Church were dismissed as having a “religious spirit.” Wild flamboyant preachers (who claimed supernatural stories) replaced the simple preaching of the Word of God. The once vibrant Sunday school attendance dropped to near-nothing, and the prayer meeting was rejected because of “religiosity.” Yet some of those most involved claimed that the congregation was experiencing a “revival of early Church liberty.” They were unconcerned about the lack of knowledge within the congregation or that the average duration of attendance for each member dropped to less than two years. As long as the number in attendance on Sunday morning was growing, the leaders were pleased.

I feel that many of the “emergent” people feel that they do proclaim the blood of Jesus. In word, they may even teach that the blood of Jesus is necessary for salvation. However, their idea of what the blood of Jesus means is very different from our own. They may teach about the cross – but their definition (again) is very different from ours. The big difference might lie within the teaching of personal responsibility. Do such preachers teach that a person must “flee from the wrath to come?” Do they teach that we must work out our own salvation “with fear and trembling?” Do they teach that we must repent of everything – the good, the bad and the ugly – in order to truly know the heart and salvation of God? Do they teach that we must HATE the things of this world?

Sadly, I find it extremely difficult to talk to many modern believers. Often, they become familiar with Christianity only as it is presented by the modern Church system. They often use rhetoric about the faith without truly understanding what they are saying. But what do we expect? Most of the shepherds of this movement don’t care about how many sheep make it to the Chief Shepherd’s fold (although they probably believe that they do). All that they really care about is having a nice, growing and involved flock of their own. These “career pastors” hardly resemble the Shepherd who would leave the fold to rescue a single lamb from the mouth of a lion. But if you were to ask them, they will claim that they believe the same as we do. They only feel that the administration of their methods is different.

As for Scriptural passages that would directly speak against the “Emergent” movement -- I think that it is difficult to do. The Emergent Church simply goes against the heart of what is taught in the New Testament. Thus, I would recommend to those who are caught in it (or other cultish beliefs) to simply read the entire New Testament through -- while forgetting the commentary regarding things that they have been taught.

:-)

Re:, on: 2008/3/8 21:39

Hi Chris,

As I read your story here, it brought back so many moments for me seeing things over the years disintegrate within Churches I have attended.

A wise man once said..It’s not that you believe in the Blood, or the Cross, it’s what you believe ABOUT the Blood and the Cross.

I didn’t understand the depth of that comment until I began hearing some really strange doctrines concerning these things.

Satan has SOOOOOO corrupted the truth, taking the Gifts for example and corrupting those where people are so afraid to even talk about Gifts for fear of being categorized with the apostate side of things.

I wonder sometimes if we haven’t played a part in this departure. When I was Born Again, I attended a ($%$#&&^) Church. In that particular Church and many like it, you just didn’t talk about the Holy Spirit. They were so paranoid about being categorized as charismatic, saying NONE of the Gifts were in operation today.

My thing, being then a Baby Christian was that it wasn’t so much the Gifts I was testifying to but the GIFT itself, being Born Again, born of the Spirit.

I was given the third degree..."Do you speak in tongues???" and having, I'll never forget, a finger pointed right at me with anger in the eyes (((right from the pulpit))...."The Holy Spirit ONLY comes on you when you are witnessing.....and ONLY then".

Being a Born Again Jew didn't go over well either, as God didn't save Jews.

So with threatening phone calls in the middle of the night when my husband was out of town, or having swastikas painted on my garage door and mailbox...you can say...I had been Baptized in the Fiery Trials the Lord said was a TOKEN of my salvation. (Not only do I live in the Bible Belt, I also live in the Klan belt too...as they ALSO go to Church)

((Oh but they preached the Blood and the Cross too.))

Scary huh!

And who said there is no persecution in America? Oh we may not be thrown in prison, or murdered and killed for our faith, but we do become obedient unto death, as New Life springs forth in us. Not only so, but New Life also springs forth around us through our obedience.

The Church..The True Church is alive today, in the midst of all this apostasy. The Saints of God ARE suffering here and now in ways no one really knows or sees.

We are called to these things, and for this momentary time of suffering will be nothing compared to the Glory that has been prepared for those who are His.

Love in Christ
Katy

Re: What is the war, and why?, on: 2008/3/9 21:13

Sister Katy: I am impressed that you are going to be just fine. Remember when Agabus prophesied a famine, that would encompass the entire Earth?

Seems odd, the whole Earth? God has His reasons. I believe that we are in a similar dearth. God has withdrawn His Spirit from all religious activity; a famine of His healing and feeding Presence. He has brought His true remnant body into death, dropped Her into the Earth as a seed would be planted, and is now awaiting the Holy vine to arise in real resurrection life. This is the only life that counts. "A SEED MUST FALL INTO THE GROUND AND DIE, BEFORE IT BEARS MUCH FRUIT". ..PAUL: WE HAD THE SENTENCE OF DEATH WITHIN OURSELVES, SO THAT WE WOULD NOT TRUST IN OURSELVES, BUT GOD WHO RAISES THE DEAD HOSEA;2:VS. 14-23..."I WILL SEW HER FOR MYSELF!"...Plant her.... plow her under . This is God almighty speaking. Would He do such a thing to one of His own? A slave is not above his master. So, those who will bend under the mighty disciplinary call of "your will, Father, not mine", and be marked as one who: "Loved not their own lives unto death, are the ones who are being changed into the image of Jesus, and these, and only these, are Sons,, Holy Offspring.In the meantime, we are witnessing the Great Falling Away....Self serving "Gospels", that honor man's well being far above Truth; an utterly selfish church that idolizes herself in prosperity, happiness, and health that is exactly the same worship that any good Hindu would offer to his or her demon idol, only they offer it to Jesus with their lips..I believe that I will see the awesome JOB, sitting at one of the 24 exalted chairs around Jesus, for this testimony of faith, "Even though He slay me, yet, will I worship Him." Why? Because He is worthy. This is the faith that WILL overcome the World, the Flesh and.. the Devil himself and all of the demons. This is the faith that the remnant Bride will enter into. This is where the real battles are fought, where real evil princes rise up to destroy anyone who would dare pick up their cross, and follow the LAMB wherever He goes. I believe the entire Body, in these final hours will look like this..in short, Holy. and these understand their own corruption, and the hope of the blood of f the Lamb, as the Father cleanses them, by faith, daily. These aren't the happy feet crowd, but they have peace,,,,for th ese dwell in the house of mourning, as they die with real pain, being slain, AS THEY WORSHIP HIM! In Matt. 10, the L ord gave wonderful faith promises to His 12.....You Shall be hated by all..Jesus was crucified by the religious crowd. Yo u will be too, if you seek Him to possess you. If you endure, then your reward will be, You possess Him. As I see it . this is the nature of the war today, and from what I can hear in your heart, you're winning. ps. I just spent five months in Chin a, India, and Israel, searching for His true "little ones". I found some, and they talk just like you!

Re:, on: 2008/3/9 21:42

Brothertom,

Oh what a wonderful testamony of Truth here! Praise God!

You asked an interesting question and one that I asked myself at first

Quote:

-----Would He do such a thing to one of His own?

And the answer is Yes Yes and a thousand times YES!

I've heard many say, Christ suffered...so you don't have to!

I so remember the day He gave me those scriptures and the truth you've placed here.

To follow the LAMB wherever He goes is to follow in His sufferings.

Quote:

-----"A SEED MUST FALL INTO THE GROUND AND DIE, BEFORE IT BEARS MUCH FRUIT". ...PAUL: WE HAD THE SENTENCE OF DEATH WITHIN OURSELVES, SO THAT WE WOULD NOT TRUST IN OURSELVES, BUT GOD WHO RAISES THE DEAD

Deep stuff here!

Resurrection Life ONLY comes out of death, or it wouldn't be called resurrection life.

Those death blows come to us in all forms and fashions. And yes, we say...though He slay me...yet will I trust in Him.

God Bless!

Katy

General Topics :: Can Anybody help me with answers from Scriptures for the Emergant Church heresy?

Re:, on: 2008/3/10 3:01

Was going to post just the article but found it may just be easier to post this thread.

"The Shift" was mentioned in The Emerging Merger - now we have the Moses Code.

It can't get much heavier or messed up now, I reckon.

<http://revivalschool.com/modules.php?name=Forums&file=viewtopic&t=9274>

I remember back when I heard the first "prophecy" that we would not leave this earth but be "transformed" while our feet are still on the ground. It was in a AoG Church I visited in 1994. :-(

There are LOTS of folks out there looking for a "deeper revelation" of "God or Christ".

Discernment anyone?

Re: - posted by deltadom (), on: 2008/3/10 12:10

Quote:

-----Being a Born Again Jew didn't go over well either, as God didn't save Jews.

It is the same question with Israel! I wish there were more born again jews!

Re:, on: 2008/3/10 14:44

Hi Delta,

Isn't it sad how so many think.

I believe, without opening up too many wounds, this attitude had come down since the reformation with Luther and so many others, which actually began in the Catholic Church.

There is so much history there that just carried over...and carries over even today in many Theologies.

Katy

Re:, on: 2008/3/10 18:57

Isaiah 51:6

Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

Anne, thanks for the article..This IS you know also Dominion Theology.

The bottom line with these guys is that they think we can turn things back to the way it was before Adam and Eve sinned, and that is what salvation is.

How sad these poor souls do not know we are a New Creation in Christ Jesus, and will be with Him in the New Heaven and New Earth, after this one is totally destroyed.

These are the scoffers spoken of in Peter who say, thing go on as it was from the beginning, never realizing the Coming of Jesus Christ to execute His wrath upon these poor souls who opted for the Kingdoms of Satan, and not the Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

Even Isaiah knew it wouldn't last forever!

Katy

Re:, on: 2008/3/10 19:25

Sis, I'm so glad you read it. It is much scarier than historic Dominionism, because it is the New Age "Quantum Leap" merged to the emergent's belief in an identical occurrence that they are going to bring about together with the New Age Quantum Leap belief that WILL come to pass as they are now joining forces to "pray it in".

It IS "the strong delusion" in its strongest sense.

It WILL happen in the "spiritual realm". They will take that "quantum leap" with the help of deceptive spirits, and as that prophecy I shared from '94 says, they will all actually believe they have been "transformed" in a major way - which is the 'Counterfeit' of the Joel 2 verses that many even in the Revival ranks hold on to.

Not too far with this - but they even have those behind them at the helm of new technology that will appear as "mod altering and able to perform "signs & wonders" with just this technology.

This "move of God" that this article, in that link is discussing, will bring on the persecution of the True Saints - because as Marilyn and other New Age folks and a few emergent folks have said - that those who do not enter or benefit from this quantum leap, need to be "purged from the earth" and they are dead serious, because they are hooked up with "the powers that be", like the U.N. etc - that agree we're too narrow-minded and too Armageddon minded.

This "Shift" mixed with "The Moses Code" is the beginning of the end for "fundamentalist Christians" or any other monothestic religion that won't "benefit" from their quantum leap "spiritually".

It is a world wide Phenomena that 'will' happen.
Called the "strong delusion". :-o

"because they did not have the (unconditional) love of the Truth" and because of the offense of the gospel and because most love this present world, the things in it and their own lives in it and because "iniquity will abound" - the Most will fall away.

This doctrine of devils is the final STRONG delusion, when it takes place - and it will.
This quantum leap stuff is dead serious stuff.

Stay in The Word as you have and GOD Bless you Mightily in contending for the faith once delivered.

GOD Bless you Katy.

Edited to add: I forgot to add that years ago, I heard Evolutionists Also saying that the next quantum leap of Evolution will be a part of the brain will be suddenly increased and open mankind to "the spiritual realm".

Re:, on: 2008/3/10 20:13

Forgive me here, I'm not trying to talk too much, but this New Age stuff has been what has been thrown in my face since before I even got saved.

The Evolutionists I mentioned above were secular.

They also said the same thing as David Spangler, Robert Muller and company from the new age people, that at that point (that quantum leap) - only those who are "lesser humans" (to put it nicely) will not have this certain part of their brain come alive.

It's all so crazy and yet true. Truth in these days does seem to be crazier than fiction.

Just type in AB blood type and the Turan into a search. It's nuts out there and they 'are' all merging - from one end of the world to the other - from denominations, 'isms', through to secular.

But the one thing I've felt heavy on my heart to share for some time now, is what I heard about 11 years ago from a well respected Evangelist.

He was on a plane and was seated by a wild looking rock star.

As they talked about "spirituality", this heavy metal/punk rock - whatever he was (dressed and make-up more like a satanist) - told the evangelist that "Oh yes, we believe very much in 'the spiritual' and we know the next great move will come through a new form of music."

Major Sigh. He who has ears to hear

We just need to be careful but HE will protect His own. Amen!

There is no fear In His Love.

edit: correction name

Re: - posted by deltadom (), on: 2008/3/10 23:27

Quote:

Hi Delta,

Isn't it sad how so many think.

I believe, without opening up too many wounds, this attitude had come down since the reformation with Luther and so many others, which actually began in the Catholic Church.

There is so much history there that just carried over...and carries over even today in many Theologies.

Katy

Constantine did much damage to the faith! It seems strange that we are almost fighting the same demonic forces that hate Jews that also hate Christianity the two go hand in hand and want to deceive the common going church member.

A love of our Messiah will conquer all the pain that your people have ever faced.

The Gypsy Nation struggle with the same question!

When his eternal eyes gaze into yours and you see that it was just the fellowship of his suffering that brought you to the power of his resurrection.

I wish a new love for God's people would be prevalent among our Churches! and for Jesus himself!

Quote:

-----1

It's all so crazy and yet true. Truth in these days does seem to be crazier than fiction.

Just type in AB blood type and the Turan into a search. It's nuts out there and they 'are' all merging - from one end of the world to the other - from denominations, 'isms', through to secular.

A merging menace a controversy of confusing spaghetti, a verse that always comforts me

Re 22:11 - Show Context

He who is unjust, let him be unjust still; he who is filthy, let him be filthy still; he who is righteous, let him be righteous still; he who is holy, let him be holy still."

2Ti 3:9 - Show Context

but they will progress no further, for their folly will be manifest to all, as theirs also was.

Joh 10:27 - Show Context

My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me

We live in a generation were we have so many false things but one day they will have to show their true colours. It is just a matter of time !

Re:, on: 2008/3/12 3:32

One more for the road - <http://www.experiencefestival.com/>

I found this doing a search yesterday for Bunyan in different languages.

He's not on there in different languages though and he may be under the alter grieving that he and others are on there at all.

Edited to add - (http://www.experiencefestival.com/a/King_James_Version_of_the_Bible/id/1895735) the "christian" section, with Bunyan etc in list at bottom of page.

Joh 16:33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in Me ye might have Peace.

In the world ye shall have tribulation: But Be of Good Cheer; I Have overcome the world.

Now that's from The King of Glory ~ So you can Count on it. Amen!

:-D