I have registered for both Revival Conferences and intend to do whatever it takes to attend. Finances have been tight these past few months, but God is "up to something," and it seems imperative to not forsake the assemblage of ourselves at such a time as this. I foresee a great earthquake on the horizon whose proportions we can only imagine. This great shaking will affect all men, and as the chasm widens all who straddle the crack shall be forced to choose: Christ or mammon, life or death. No longer shall there be lukewarmness, but there will be passion on either side. What is emanating from the chasm is a very great light that is the forcefield of the last great push of evangelism on the horizon. We all share that quickening within, and I believe that is why we draw close to one another. It is the 'fight or flight' syndrome that God is stirring up within our bosoms. We shall see great marvels and we shall be busy beyond comprehension with souls, souls, souls. Once again, I apologize for wordiness; but words rise up as molten lava within me for the sake of souls in this hour - firstly for the church and secondly for the lost. Thank you to the obedience of all involved with sermonindex and its endeavors. God is ever watchful and this time is appointed. Enough said from WarriorPoet!

Hi Greg...

This is wonderful! My wife and I are going to make every effort to attend. We missed last year's conference, and it would be a tragedy to miss again.

We are certainly keeping this conference within our prayers. We hope to see some great things as a result.

By the way, has anyone ever heard of "Ben Jordan" (not to be confused with Bernard Jordan or Benjamin Jordan)? He is a preacher from Missouri that I heard at a conference as a teen. In his messages, he preached about a deep longing for revival. He also explained how he reads Why Revival Tarries after every new year. The messages that I have heard from him are soul stirring are heart challenging.

Has anyone ever heard of him?

Dear Brother,

It would be great for you to join us at the conference where there will be God willing a sincere plea for genuine revival in our land. If you have any copies of or links to his messages do send them my way, I would be interested to hear this young preachers sermons. Yes, keep praying for the events that are planned this year that God would come in the midst.

God has opened up a new church that will make much more room 1400 seats. And also provide easy access to the airport ALANTA and hotels and motels from and to the church. The new area is Lilburn, GA which is right on the edge of Alanta. I will be emailing all the pre-registered folks that have registered already about this switch.

I have spoken with your pastor and what we might be doing is having a live-website of all 3 evening services at your church in Oklahoma. This will allow local people who can't travel out to Georgia view some of the sessions and prayer and worship corporately. I will post more information on these "similcast" events that will be available all over the country God willing.

I also wanted to mention that Alan Martin will be attending the event and helping with the morning worship times.

Praise God!

Yes, we need to keep praying!

"All great soul-winners have been men of much and mighty prayer, and all great revivals have been preceded and carried out by persevering, prevailing knee-work in the closet." Â– Samuel Logan Brengle

"Shall I give you yet another reason why you should pray? I have preached my very heart out. I could not say any more than I have said. Will not your prayers accomplish that which my preaching fails to do? Is it not likely that the Church has been putting forth its preaching hand but not its praying hand? Oh dear friends! Let us agonize in prayer." Â– C. H. Spurgeon

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2008/3/25 22:54

There are over 75 people registered to attend this event already. Many people have been asking me can they register and the answer is "yes"!

I am working on the details for the brochere's and they will be available within the next week.

Keep praying saints, many of the details are being arranged and worked out. Administration is a small matter what matters most is being broken before God and having God descend upon lives at this event. There will be a good emphasis on prayer before this event so that "much" prayer is given up in light of this event.

This is a "turning point" in the history of America. It is a "desperate hour"

Wow. That's only an hour and change for me. Hopefully my schedule will permit. Would be awesome to meet Washer, Kenaston, McLeod; not to mention many of you so I can apologize for being a jerk in the discussion forum (that's probably a joke to some and a long awaited confession for others). We are also working on getting videos done by good speakers from all across the world to share their heart on revival. These 10-15 minute presentations will add much to the event and build in us a desperation to see God work in a mighty way!

Keep praying saints.

Hi Greg...

Do you think that it would be appropriate to print out fliers and mail them to congregations that might possibly be interested in the conference? Perhaps an email campaign could be started in which we email everyone we know who might be interested in the conference and ask that they forward it to those who might also be interested?

I have read how "viral" campaigns (sort of like "word of mouth" via the internet) have worked over the past few years for various events or political campaigns. Perhaps an email (with information and links) sent to believers who are hungry for revival could be forwarded from them to others?

Do you think this is a proper means of spreading this news?

Brother, do you have any banners and scripts made so one can help spread the word about these conferences?

People may want to help out on their own webpages and put on some thing to help further spread the word.

Keep praying saints! We are organizing 5+ NIGHTS of prayer in different locations in the world and all the events will be live webcasted. May God birth in us a spirit of prayer for genuine revival. The devil will try his hardest to stop PRAYER!

Any feedback or anyone who has churches and areas they think would be able to host such a event let me know.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2008/9/16 17:51

Saints,

Bill Mcleod due to surgery will not be able to make it to the Georgia conference but during my trip to south africa, I met with Francois Carr who runs heart cry for revival conferences world-wide and he is willing to come to be a speaker.

Francois Carr - Francois Carr resides in South Africa and is the director of Heart Cry conferences internationally. He has a burdened heart to see genuine revival occur in churches across africa and world-wide. He is also the author of "Revival - The Glory of God", "Are you filled?" and "My time with Him".
