Saints,

Praise God for this landmark! I remember only 3-4 years ago praying to God earnestly to see 1-2 million sermons distributed and now to see 10,000,000 million sermons distributed is such a joy in my heart. I am privileged to just be a part of what God is doing, as the people who are downloading and distributing these sermons via CD and other methods. Truly SermonIndex is a part of a grassroots movement to get back to the biblical standard and apostolic original.

For those that are interested you can learn more about SermonIndex and its history here:

And in light of this "landmark" perhaps now more then ever this is important:

Pray for SermonIndex

"the cause of Christ" may this be our ambition, purpose and goal on this earth to spread the gospel.

May the cause of Christ in the world spread and abound as we simply co-labour and are fellow-workers with God to this end.

If ten million sermons have been downloaded, and each sermon is shared with one other person (I frequently share the m with ten or fifteen people) than think of it! God is good. A great door is open but there are many opponents.

Thank you brother in Christ's name for making this precious resource available. May God continue to richly bless you. 2Th 3:1 Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have course, and be glorified, even as with you:

Wow, that is a staggering number. Praise GOD!!!

To help put that number in perspective, you can look at this page with one million dots on it. (Make sure to scroll right!)

Now imagine ten of those! Satan hates this place, pray for sermonindex!

Spreading the ruin to the devils kingdom - posted by crsschk (), on: 2008/4/5 20:13

Incredible number ... Tried something similar with the math and broke it down to something like 4 messages a minute over the course of five years.

And if not, may sermonindex come to that place by God's grace.

As well I think many of us know it is a great priviledge to be a member here on Sermon Index
