

Articles and Sermons :: From A Letter Of Robert Murray McCheyneFrom A Letter Of Robert Murray McCheyne, on: 2008/4/6 17:37*From A Letter Of Robert Murray McCheyne

From Memoir & Remains of Robert Murray McCheyne

"I am deepened in my conviction, that if we are to be instruments in such a work , we must be purified from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit. O, cry for personal holiness, constant nearness to God, by the Blood of the Lamb. Bask in His beams--lie back in the arms of love--be filled with His Spirit--or all success in the ministry will only be to your own everlasting confusion.

"Do not think any sin trivial; remember it will have everlasting consequences. O to have Brainerd's heart for perfect holiness--to be holy as God is holy--pure as Christ is pure--perfect as our Father in heaven is perfect...How much more useful might we be, if we were only more free from pride, self-conceit, personal vanity, or some secret sin that our hearts know. O! hateful sins, that destroy our peace, and ruin our souls."

Re: From A Letter Of Robert Murray McCheyne, on: 2008/4/8 12:24

Agreed not much said here but what is said is of most importance and truth as well as very powerful. A must read and taken to heart before any Revival.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2008/4/8 12:50

"I am deepened in my conviction, that if we are to be instruments in such a work , we must be purified from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit. O, cry for personal holiness, constant nearness to God, by the Blood of the Lamb. Bask in His beams--lie back in the arms of love--be filled with His Spirit--or all success in the ministry will only be to your own everlasting confusion.

AMEN!