Saints,

Wilkerson shares a very burdened heart on when God's judgement comes to a nation. The clarion call is clear and has been for many years, and the lack of clear warnings in the last 10 years has been the first signs of judgement on the Church. There is hope for people to repent still and be tender to the leading of God's Spirit. Those who trust in the Lord will be protected and not ashamed in that day.

Thanks for posting this Greg. I'll be listening to it as soon as the download finishes, and I have a question.... Is this a recent sermon? Another.... do you keep privately, the dates on which sermons presented on SI, were preached?

It has been a real blessing to me to understand how seriously the pastoral team at TSC take their own personal walks with God, and that the word preached is always freshly from the heart of God. If one knows one is listening to a very old sermon, somehow it does a different thing, than knowing this was this week's word.

In it he says, "six months ago in San Francisco tv's went black, etc." He was talking about the earthquake that hit there in 1989. So it sounds like it was early 1990.

Hope that helps!!! :)
