Free/Cheap Correspondence Course - posted by HomeFree89 (), on: 2008/5/31 16:17

If any of you know of a free or cheap correspondence course on general theology, would you please recommend it? I'm kind of looking for a theology 101 or a little higher.

Thanks!

This isn't a correspondence course but Dr. Wayne Grudem has been teaching a Sunday morning class at Scottsdale Bible Church called Christian Essentials. The lessons are based on his book Systematic Theology and the teachings are freely available on the web. This isn't for egg-heads, it's Theology on a Sunday School level for developing an essential Christian worldview. An excellent resource.

Hi,

I would recommend listening through these 2 series with Zac Poonen and take notes.

there is some free audio/video courses on itunes store. If you have itunes click on itunes store. On the left menu you have "itunes u" (university)

There are some great free courses, example concordia seminary has a biblical greek class, where they video the whole year of classes, so you can just follow along and learn koine greek for free :-) there are many more classes like this.

I havent been through them, but i have found classes on church history and and other christian subjects. Pherhaps you may be able to find something brother other then that i recomend you go through the bible with Zac Poonen. He has just finished his verse for verse through the new testament.

God bless you

Try:

(<http://www.biblicaltraining.org/index.php>) Biblical Training Click along the various links on the top and select the level you are interested in. The courses range from new believer classes to seminary level programs. The links page will take you to several other free online course offerings.

And by the way, there is nothing "cheap" about these - in that they are second rate. A lot of them are actual Bible School/seminary lectures for real classes - by some outstanding evangelical spiritual leaders.

It is exciting that through the internet, now many who cannot go to school for whatever reasons can still be discipled and equipped for the great commission. The more the better!

Enjoy!

Hey Diane,

I just wanted to thank you for the link to the online courses. I was SOOO excited when I saw all the wonderful courses that are available and I started systematic theology yesterday. This really was an answer to prayer.

God bless you sister.

Thank again everyone! I'm still checking into all the options, but the links that I've looked at are great. Praying about which one to start.
