I recieved an email from Pastor Daniel Lirette stating that he would spam every member of SI tommorow which would be July 17th. I would ask that as soon as you recieve a spam email you would notify me so I can delete his account and block him. I have already have to block his account and computer address 3 times. I think this is a big waste of my time and other people to have to deal with this and I apologize for the inconviene of any of the members to have to deal with these things. I have also emailed: BibleThumper, he seems reasonably minded and I hope he can help prevent another more occourences with Daniel on this site.

Here is the email (I hope I am not showing an overly concern over these things, I just dont want anyone to stumble over these things):

I will be emailing EVERY SI Member tomorrow through their private emails on SI.

I'll be connecting via another computer....

My site addy as well as statements you made will be given... (Such as I'm on drugs, as you told Dawn)

I question your salvation, as you speak devilish words of error and false accusation against others.

Also, you spend more time online than in prayer or study.

Your sermons ARE the best on the net, yet are YOU heeding their words?

Why do you seek to fool Christ's People?

WHy do you lie?

Tell me, Greg; why are you false?

Daniel

Thanks for the heads up.
Ignore him, don't even respond.
