

Devotional Thoughts :: One Pot of Oil - Chip Brogden

One Pot of Oil - Chip Brogden, on: 2009/7/30 13:39

"...Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil" (II Kings 4:2b).

Every disciple of the Lord Jesus is at a different level of growth and spiritual maturity. But may I say that no matter how long you have walked with the Lord - be it several years or only a day - you have at least one "pot of oil" in your house.

Now what you do with that one pot of oil makes the difference between a victorious life and a defeated life. The single pot of oil is not much in and of itself. It is not sufficient to meet the demands of your creditors, nor is it sufficient to sustain your spiritual life. It is only sufficient when it is poured forth. The one who "saves" his life will lose his life, but the one who "pours out" his life will really have it in abundance.
