Greetings

I know I have not posted in a while but I am here to ask for prayer. My dad is in intensive care, they are moving him to the Portland hospital for further care. His heart is giving out on him, As I shared before he has been living on very limited time. I have not had much contact with him as perhaps I should have, its difficult because for what I know of his heart he is not saved. At this time I am asking that if you feel led please pray that if these are in fact his last few days on this earth that he would humble himself before God that he would cry out to Him and repent. As long as he is still with us there is hope that he would repent and see his need of Jesus. Please pray that some how through the pain and medicines he would cry out to Jesus. Father has been so merciful with my dad, so loving even when my dad has rejected Him time and time again. In this time I just want to hold on to how generous our Father has been to my dad and to all of us when we are so very undeserving of that love and mercy. What an awesome and magnificent God we have the privilege to call our Father in Heaven...

God Bless

I am praying MaryJane - for both your dad and yourself - that the Lord may bring peace about this into your heart.

As I was reading your post, this sermon that I listened to recently came to mind:

Father,

We ask you for Mercy & Grace concerning Mary Jane's Daddy.

Just as you saved my Husband before you took him Home, you are able to save her Dad.

Your Grace is Sufficient, so please save him, and strengthen this Family.

In Jesus Name.

Thank you for your prayers everyone. Nellie I am so sorry for the loss of your husband. I know Father has been your comfort and strength in this time. Just to let you know dear sister you have been in my prayers as well.

I heard from the Doctor just a few moments ago and they are moving my dad to Portland right now. His arteries are blocked more then they were. They are not sure what they can do at this time but he is in a great deal of pain. They have him on a morphine drip. They found that he has a collapse lung and suspect a tumor. they will be attempting to do a biopsy on it if they get the go ahead from the heart specialist. My dad smoked for the better part of his life so they believe he may now have lung cancer on top of all of his heart issues.

thank you again for your thoughts
God Bless

Thank you to everyone who has been praying for my dad. He is now in Portland in the intensive care unit. He is not doing well. They have the pain under control but his left lung has collapsed completely and he is throwing up blood. His kidneys are damaged and he is getting limited blood and oxygen flow to his heart. He is on full mask oxygen and they are considering putting him on a ventilator. He can not talk on the phone so I can not speak with him at all. At this time there is no evidence that he has had a change of heart and or that he has repented. In all of this, that is what is the most difficult part. This has been really hard for me I will admit, the thought of him, of anyone suffering eternity in hell is just such a fearful thing. And yet I know that Father has been so generous and given so many chances to my dad, many times when he could have repented, died to self, and given his life to Jesus. If I may ask you all for your prayers to help me keep my focus on Jesus during this time. There is hope as long as he is still with us I know that, just praying that my dad will somehow see things as they really are, see his great need for Jesus...

thank you again for your prayer and kindness, I know so much is going on in the world around us today that it is a great comfort to know there are those who love Jesus and are out there seeking the Lord on my dad's behalf.

God Bless

Mary Jane,
You may have already thought about this, but would the Hospital send in a Chaplain to talk with your Dad?
If he can't speak, he can pray in his heart.
Jesus hears heart Prayers, too.
Father, save Mary Jane's Daddy.
In Jesus Name.

Dear MJ, dear dear sister, I am praying for your precious father. If it is his time, may his soul ascend to Heaven. Somehow, and I can't explain why, I feel this sweet release that the dear man will be with Jesus, when and if he crosses the River Jordan. I don't know you or him, but I know your father must love his dear Mary Jane, and you love Jesus, and Jesus loves you and lives in you, so.....I just feel a sweet release, and hope that my prayers and your prayers, and our brethren's prayers ascend to Heaven as a memorial offering for the soul of your father, interceding and pleading. God is merciful and loving, that I know.

In Jesus love, neil

Dear brothers and sister

I wanted to say thank you for your prayers. My dad past away this afternoon. Father in His mercy allowed me a few minutes with my dad on the phone and I got to tell him I love him. My sister who is saved was also able to speak with him, she shared with him about repentance and crying out to Jesus. My dad told her that he was saying a simple prayer, "I am a sinner, Jesus save me." That was my dads prayers as he lay dieing. Jesus knows what was in my dads heart. Through out this whole time I have been praying that Jesus be glorified and lifted up and may His name be praised. I love my Heavenly Father and I trust Him in this and in all things!

thank you all so much for your prayer and care during this time.

God Bless
maryjane

BE STILL, MY SOUL

Be still, my soul: the Lord is on thy side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain.
Leave to thy God to order and provide;
In every change, He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul: thy best, thy heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.

Be still, my soul: thy God doth undertake
To guide the future, as He has the past.
Thy hope, thy confidence let nothing shake;
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still, my soul: the waves and winds still know
His voice Who ruled them while He dwelt below.

Be still, my soul: when dearest friends depart,
And all is darkened in the vale of tears,
Then shalt thou better know His love, His heart,
Who comes to soothe thy sorrow and thy fears.
Be still, my soul: thy Jesus can repay
From His own fullness all He takes away.

Be still, my soul: the hour is hastening on
When we shall be forever with the Lord.
When disappointment, grief and fear are gone,
Sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored.
Be still, my soul: when change and tears are past
All safe and blessed we shall meet at last.

Be still, my soul: begin the song of praise
On earth, believing, to Thy Lord on high;
Acknowledge Him in all thy words and ways,
So shall He view thee with a well pleased eye.
Be still, my soul: the Sun of life divine
Through passing clouds shall but more brightly shine.
