I have been able to get the speaking schedule for Keith Daniel, he is going across much of the USA till the end of this year and I know that there are many on this site that have been blessed by Keith Daniels ministry to the body of Christ. So I am sure many will attend these events and be able to hear this dear brother and in some cases his whole family in person.

I have been giving my friend alot of sermons from Keith Daniel and he has been listening to them and giving them to his friends! That friend of mine today asked me if Keith is still alive. I told him that he was and that he is preaching in Americ a right now. He was excited and said to me WOW maybe we could go hear and see him. We live in Fresno CA. i told hi m the closest he was going to be was Oregon. I just looked on a map and it is on the north side of Oregon that Keith is g oing to be, that is 800 miles from where i live! He told me without a hesitation "That is ok with me. i want to go and see hi m. Maybe we could go." I told him it was going to be in early November. He said that is ok. God willing my friend and I wi ll go! It would be so wonderfull to go. Thank you Greg for posting Keith's Schedule.

Re: - posted by Janus (), on: 2004/9/28 6:15

I want to urge all of you who know of this meetings to please tell as many of your friends as possible. To have a man of God still speaking the truth without shame or comprmise is almost to good to be true, but to God be the praise!!

Let us all go to hear God and not a man!!

I am also living in South Africa, about 30 miles from Keith's home, so I had many priviliges to speek and listen to his sermons. He is also a lecturer as the AEB bible college here in Cape TOWn where my brother and sister is students and th ey also many times testifies of the Lord blessing them in the classes!

Br. Keith's son and my friend, Roy, will also be with his father and helping and preaching himself. He himself will only be there for about a week to a week and a half.

Please pray for these men and woman of God that they may keep their eyes on the Lord and not to look upon men or see how God uses them!!

Again I say. Let us pray,pray,pray. For what a day when a holy man of God falls!! May we keep them in our prayers always.

Love in Christ

It is worth traveling 800+ miles to see Brother Keith!!!

Last fall, I was a wreck. We had one crisis after another, disaster on every side. My husband told me "Honey, I can't go with you right now, but you need some time to seek God. You need a spiritual retreat. Go see Keith Daniel. You choose how you want to get there." 12 hours later I was on a Greyhound bus heading 800 miles away.

God used Brother Keith, and a little Holiness fellowship, and some others in Colorado, to reach through my despair and grab hold of my sinking heart. I came home a different person, filled with the knowledge and wisdom I needed in my particular situation. I am STILL reaping the blessings TODAY, a year later!

God met me and ministered to me, through Brother Keith's witness, and the messages he brought. To see him in person, oh my, he's human! But so very dear, so kind, he loves 'the least of them' in his audience, like this bedraggled middle-aged mother from the desert wilderness.

Keith handles the Word of God seriously. I don't know many men who fast and pray for days upon end before they open their mouth in the pulpit. He does, I can attest to that. Men like him function under agencies called 'faith missions', that rely totally on God to provide. So many evangelists charge big bucks or demand a certain venue for their engagements. Not these guys. Of course, they're booked solid for years in advance, so to have them speak in your area will take a year or two to arrange.

By all means, everyone who is able, go and see him if you can. I would recommend people call the contact person ahead of time. Many groups hosting Keith are small, local fellowships that would appreciate knowing if out-of-towners are coming. It builds good relations and lets you know what type of group you will be visiting. I enjoyed meeting the dozens of families who came to hear Keith Daniel as much as the messages themselves!

God shows Himself strong on behalf of those that seek His face. Its a sad truth in our day that man are not preaching the uncompromising purity of the gospel of Christ. Not adhering to the worldly methods adopted in most churches. Praise God for men like Keith Daniel that allow Christ to speak through them, when you go to his meetings you are surely not hearing from a man but God Himself.

Amen! yes God can in ONE MOMENT totally change a life and set that life on fire for the purposes of God. In ONE MOMENT God could do such a work that you would never be the same! come to these meetings to hear from God and those that seek Him with all their hearts shall find Him. I am confident also that many lives will be changed, go prayerfully expecting God to meet you. If we are not going to meet God then what is the point? Keith Daniel is a dear brother but God help us if to see him is the only purpose we have in our minds. Let us see a life that is abandoned to the purposes of God and want to know God as much as he knows God. I am very excited and expecting to hear many testimonies from people who are going to be changed in massive ways from these meetings. Please pray for them all.

I have already heard from the Don Courson family that there has been a lot of response from people from SI! Praise God. I hope many more will be able to hear Keith Daniel in person. Also I am trying to get together a financial donation to help Mr Daniel and his family for their USA tour. They are relying on God 100% Let me know if you are interested in giving an amount.

Re: - posted by DavidB, on: 2004/10/4 15:59

Bro Keith was at my church last weekend (Old Paths Bible Baptist) and this was the best that I have heard him. We normally get him at the end of his tour and he is usually pretty tired by then so it was extra special to see him fresh at the beginning of the tour. The messages he delivered were truly a blessing and I would highly recommend going somewhere to see him if at all possible. I am considering taking my family to see him again at one of the other meetings not too far from where we are.

It is my opinion that we should make all efforts to see godly men like this while they are around and let God use them to change our lives.

Thank you dear brother for sharing this. Yes it is worth traveling for a godly man of God to pour their life and ministry into our hearts, to see men like this in flesh and blood can be a great encouragement to our faith.

As far as I know Brother Keith doesn't speak in other countries other than South Africa and United States of America. In one of his sermons he stated this quite particularly in the introduction that he is not like other evangelists traveling all over the world, he doesn't care for that. But who knows he could be going abroad in the future? www.keithdaniel.org his number and email are on that site in his newsletter.

Re: - posted by hredii (), on: 2004/11/10 23:10

Well here I am in my home again. I am back from the 1600 mile trip. It was the best trip I have ever taken. It was so pleasant. My words can not express how much the trip touched my heart. The congregation there at the church and all the visitors were so Godly and loving. I wish there was a church body like the one I visited in my town. I have never seen such a more beautiful church ever. I mean there Christ like conduct. The light of Christ shined through there face, so pure so sincere. I was blessed 10 times beyond any expectation I had.

I got to see our Savior Christ a little more clearly on Sunday morning. After Keith finished praying, I had a revelation of Christ. It just hit me, a light bulb turned on. All he has consumed himself with is the Word of God and obeying it. His prayers are just the Word expressed differently than quoting verses. I saw Christ who is the Word. I also saw how to become Christ like... By consuming ourselves with the Word of God until we become the Word of God.

I wish I was better at writing and so I could describe what my heart feels like after the trip. God showed me so much stuff on the trip. I am sure I will be meditating on it for a long long time. It was not just the words that Keith spoke that made the trip what it was.

1 Thessalonians 1:5 "For our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit and in much assurance, as you know what kind of men we were among you for your sake."

That is how it was there. Not only in word but also in the power of the Holy Spirit. Not just in Keith but also in the whole congregation.

I will never forget the trip! I hope there will be another opportunity to see him.

I also video taped the sermons and the church is going to send me the sermons on tape. I will get them to Greg soon if he would like them. I also took some pictures of the trip maybe Greg will post a few once I get them developed?

The last sermon was on being a soldier for Christ, he talked about William Booth. I thought that I was doing good job doing evangelism here. Oh but after the sermon was over I was cut to the heart. He tore my conscience apart.

I came away from the trip with a clearer picture of a healthy church, a fuller understanding of what it is to be Christ like, more of a hunger for the Word of God, my love that was growing cold being warmed, friendships and memories that I will never forget.

I will give further details of the trip later.

Re: - posted by hredii (), on: 2004/11/11 11:00

Oh I forgot to tell you... Sunday night it was the last night Keith spoke. After Keith left I was talking to the contact person's wife. She asked me where I heard of Keith? I told her that I came across him on a site called Sermonindex.net. I forget exactly what she said but Keith was wondering why on this trip to the U.S. so many people were traveling so far to hear him, or something to that extent. Then I told her that Keith also has a site himself. She told me that he does not even know about it. I remember her saying "I asked him if he did and he told me that he does not."

My impression is that because of Greg putting up Keith's schedule many people are going to hear him that would not unless Greg did so. I am one of those people.

So for all those that have or are going to hear Keith personally, to Greg Thank you.

Re: - posted by revival9 (), on: 2004/11/12 2:29

Thank you Adam for your reports! I hope this encourages others to quickly make arrangements and catch him at one of his remaining speaking engagements. Out of courtesy, people should call the contact number before heading out. The fellowships hosting him are often small and they appreciate knowing who is coming.

Sounds like Keith doesn't know about the site which has his newsletters up. He may not understand how the internet works.

Greg, have you ever talked to him and told him he's got some of the most popular sermons online? He must not realize the extent of his 'fan club'! :-P

I have tried to give him a ring once, I know I will be able to meet this dear brother one day. Yes I think he has some concept on how tape ministries can further the word preached to 1000's in our day. He has been blessed to hear how the tapes of his sermons through the Charity gospel ministries has touched many.

Yes this is awesome to hear how God is using SI to help spread the gospel and allow people to hear gospel preaching online and also be directed to living saints proclaiming his word today. Its Nov 13th as I post this so here is where brother Keith is right now, if you live in the area do visit:

Here is a message that was preached at that Oregon meeting that brother Adam got to me:

Re: - posted by crsschk (), on: 2004/11/17 0:25

Ah this is just great!

Thanks Adam! What a blessing...

Can still remember back awhile now that someone mentioned some of Keith Daniel's messages here. Up till that time really we had kind of missed him even though some of his sermons were here for I don't know how long. But because of that suggestion others started to investigate and ...the rest is history. Makes me wonder what other gems are still lurking in the archives waiting to be unearthed.

There was next to nothing out there as we began searching for information on him, think some of us weren't even sure if he was alive. If I recall just one or two items. It seems the likelihood is that SI is reaching in ways I had hoped and suspected. On a whim tried a Google search... interesting, there is quite a bit more info now than a year ago.

Have been following this thread and am so glad all that have been able to go hear the man have been so blessed and in turn shared it with all of us.

Thanks you guys.

I echo Mike's comments. I am so glad and blessed that we can be a part of what God is doing and direct people to solid biblical preaching in these last days. If you have not heard this man life I would strongly encourage you to do so, here is the next venue he will be at:

Nov. 19-21 - Grace Christian Fellowship

Recently I saw on the sermonindex homepage the link to keith Daniels speaking schedule. I caught myself calculation the distance I would be willing to travel to hear him speak. 200 miles? 500 miles? What a shock to see he would be coming to our little town (pop. 15,000) The preaching was brought forth in a excellent manner with a great reverence for God Holy Word. The messages were edifying and challenging. What a blessing to hear a man of God testify to the power of God in operation in his life without all the hype, fluff, and money-hungry manipulating that have soured so many people to the traveling ministers of our time. Thanks for posting the schedule Greg and for all of the great sermons I have downloaded, burned to C.D., listened to and passed on. Only God knows how many are being blessed with the Word in this fashion, but I believe that at the end of it all, it will be revealed a staggering amount of glory has been brought to God and much help to His people as Christ works these labors through you.

Amen where has the simple preaching of the gospel gone! we have lost of the power of the gospel replacing it with our own ingenuity, technology and working up of emotions. I am glad you were blessed brother, there is a rare breed of preachers still out there who love the truth and preach the truth unadulterated from a clean heart. Me and 5 other brothers traveled from Johns Hopkins University to see Keith Daniel this past weekend in Brainbridge, N Y. We were only able to go to the Sunday morning service but it was well worth the drive from Baltimore. He preached for over 2 hours through the entire book of 1 John and I thank God for a man like him. It is so rare to hear the Word of God these days. I have come to realize that there is a big difference between biblical sermons and the Word of the Lord. I am sick of hearing just biblical messages and have a hunger for the Word of God. So I thank God for this website!

We had the pleasure of meeting with Keith after the service and talked with him for about 5-10 minutes. I told him about this website and he was happy to hear that his messages were being heard. He strikes me as a man who walks with God. One who is very intimate with God and who is almost other-worldly because he is so consumed with God and his Word. I'll never forget that service or meeting him. Thanks for posting his schedule on this website!

In Christ,
Jake Kail

I want to weigh in on Bro. Daniel's ministry.

One year ago, on November 29, 2003, I had the blessing of hearing Bro. Keith preach at Old Paths Bible Baptist Church in Clarendon, NY. I went expecting to learn something about preaching. I left born again.

Bro. Keith spoke on "The Complications Of The Spiritual Birth". As he preached, the Holy Spirit convicted me that I needed to examine my own salvation. I realized that I was not saved when I thought I was. I was challenged with the question, "When did you repent?". I had never repented. I did that day.

When I came back to my church to preach the very next day, I was in a tailspin. At the end of the sermon, I just read Ps. 51 and told about what happened the day before. For a couple of months afterward, and even lately, some in our church think that I have become unstable. I preach law and then grace. I am learning to walk with God, but have so far to go. I preach self examination.

At the end of January 2005 I will step down as pastor in order to do street evangelism and evangelism training. I believe that I am too young to be an elder and so I am stepping down. What is ironic is that I was unsaved and had what some say was a dynamic ministry at the time. Now that I am soundly saved, the church is shrinking and some still question my stability.

But I will never ever go back. For the first time in my life, I have victory over sin and real joy in walking with Christ. It is real. And I love it. And I thank the Lord every day that there are a few who preach the Word and for my salvation.

Blessings,

Jon

Hi Bro Jon,

What an inspiring story. Don't allow those who know nothing of a genuine walk with God hinder you. Keep on pursuing God, in spite of being misunderstood. Allow the Holy Spirit to guide as you stay in the word and prayer.

God Bless,

-Robert

AMEN! brother Jon what a wonderful testimony! Keith Daniel fearlessly makes known the true gospel of Christ. Its so awesome to hear of the fruit of his ministry first hand like this. Keep seeking Christ and following Him ignoring the opinions of man, for its HIM that we will stand to account for our actions and ministries. Bless you brother.

Keith Daniel's preaching tour in the USA is over now. I thank all the people that shared the encouraging testimonies and reports of what God was doing. I will try to get more messages up from his preaching in the USA as I can procure them. If you attended one of his meetings and didn't share your experience please feel free to still do so. If this is unstable, then count me in.
Thanks for sharing this with us all brother.
Came home from a long day working and this lifted my spirit. You are on the right track Jon, will keep you in my prayers and do let us know if we can be of any help.

Just to help draw a line of reference. Brother Jon Speed was the brother that just came to Toronto to witness open air and I had the privilege to meet and pray with him for those 2 days. He shared in some detail about how God did a true work of Grace in his heart and it was very encouraging to hear.

Outstanding...

This just keeps getting better, Praise God!
