I have a pretty hefty book collection at my house and I don't think I will be using them all. I would like to donate some of them, but I do request one thing that they really are going to be used, I really would rather not give them for them to be put on a shelf in a church's library. People in the church seem not to be interested in them. I really would like to donate these more to poor ministries in another country who have a hard time getting any material at all. If you know anyone or any ministry like that let me know please, I want to help out. Blessings in Christ John

Hey Brother!

Why not check out a prison ministry, I work with/at a jail and find Christian reading is scarce for the inmates. And these are guys that basically sit around all day and have an over abundant amount of time to read. From what I see that getting donated here is sleazy novels. I am sure this is a problem for other prison or jail ministry or just jail/prison ministry.

Hope this helps!

God Bless,
Matthew

Why don't you post a list on here of what you want to get rid of and only charge for postage to those of us who might like to buy them from you?

Amazon charges $3.99 for shipping of a used book. We could pay you to ship it to us!! Open up a paypal account... it's very easy.

Post a list and if you don't get any takers, then take them to the Good Will, prison or some place!!

Think about it and God bless you!
