Hello from Bulgaria! - posted by NewSpared, on: 2011/1/13 14:30

Hi everyone.

My name's Lora and I have been on this forum before. My nickname was Spared, I think. I don't have my password any more and I didn't find a "forgotten password" button, so I re-registered. I hope I've done the right thing.

The occasion for me to come, just like last time, is to ask a question and I'll do that in the Scriptures and doctrine section

Blessings to all!

Sister,

Great to see you on the forums and that is fine you re-registered. If you forget your account credentials in the future just give me an email. God bless you as you seek the Lord.
