My name is Maim, and I've recently come into assurance of knowing God; my desire is to interact with others who have a desire for revival to advance His kingdom. I also worry about being haughty and arrogant--are there any words, Scripture or sermons about humility, gentleness and servanthood you would recommend to me?

Welcome fellow servant of the Most High! We receive the greatest blessing of God by His revelation of Himself to us, as well He took upon flesh and walked among us, and now he lives within us.

Regarding sermons on humility you need only go to the main page and search under "by topic" for the word humility, humble etc.... I know that Ravenhill has a sermon on humility and he always seemed to humble himself so beautifully when he taught. You may also find a little extra humility in posting here.
