Saints,

Mohler began by describing the current landscape of the American church—we need a recovery of understanding the Scriptures in their totality. He expounded Jesus' dialogue with the Pharisees in John 5 with specific application for us. The Pharisees' rejection of Jesus was a refusal to recognize God's witness of him. The takeaway for us is important: one can study the Scriptures extensively and not get it

"This is a needed message to hear for western Christendom. We must needs see the Gospel and Jesus Christ in Old Testament Scriptures. This message clearly and biblically defines this need and also lack in modern pulpits. May we make much of Christ and His work in saving us by the Blood which is the Gospel." - Greg Gordon
