Welcome Recovery is good, we as christ's called by his name are in the work of helping a sinful world recover from our sins.

I have been and am very blessed by this site.

Good to have you on the site. If you are wanting to reply to a post press on the reply button not the new thread button. I hope that helps. Once again nice website and I hope you are blessed by the sermons available on SI.

Hi Tim

welcome to our family. That is certainly a slick website. I have web-sty of my own but I'm keeping quiet about it!
