

Welcome & Intro :: Teddy Hodgson / Belgian Congo

Teddy Hodgson / Belgian Congo - posted by Wez, on: 2005/1/7 16:28

If anyone has any information about Teddy Hodgson, a missionary in the Belgium Congo until his murder in 1960, I would be very grateful. He was my Godfather. He worked with Harold Wormsley. While on a trip to Lulungu with a fellow missionary (Knauf) the pair were tortured and murdered.

many thanks. Wez.

Wez
Please try these links.
Central African Missions
Teddy Hodgson and the Congo River
There's a book called Seven Pentecostal Pioneers - Whittaker, Colin C.. (ISBN: 0882435450) which includes Teddy Hodgson. It sometimes comes up on second hand book lists in the UK.

BTW Wez, where are you based?

Thanks for the reply. Colin Whittaker is my father. I am Wesley Whittaker, age 51, living in Dunstable Bedfordshire. My parents live in Nottingham. They recently had broadband installed and are now "silver surfers" I will pass on these threads. :-) Again, many thanks for the reply.

Hello Wez,

A most sincere and warm welcome to you.

:-D
I like that a lot.

Will need to delve into these links that Ron brought out. Would love to hear more about you and your father as you feel led to share.

Hope you enjoy the site and do let us know if we can be of any help whatsoever.

I'm glad I didn't try to introduce to his writings! I think your father had some later links with the BBI? I was there from 66-69 but I think that was before his time. I think your father and I would probably have a few mutual friends.

This site is an absolute goldmine! Good hunting!

BTW for everyone else Colin Whittaker has written quite a few Christian books, including one on 'revivals'.
