The Lord laid the thoughts below upon my heart, it mentions being restless, being anxious, being lost, being alone, fearful and foolish, ungrateful and being bound, hopeless and blind, afflicted and dead, hungry and lost, and finally, waiting and praying. Perhaps you can relate to some of these issues, perhaps you can relate to all of these issues? Perhaps for a moment today you can consider the gravity of your deliverance? Perhaps you can consider the fact that the Lord has impacted every single aspect of your existence? Perhaps, as you consider such thoughts, that the glory of the Lord will begin to rise in your spirit? Let us never forget the magnitude of Jesus in our lives, how He, and He alone shapes every aspect of it. Thank you today Lord, for such a deliverance.....brother Frank

WE FIND OUR REST IN THEE

We were restless

Until we found our rest in thee

We were anxious

Until we glimpsed eternity

We were lost

Until you came to show the way

We were alone

Until you walked with us each day

We are fearful

Until we revel in your love

We are foolish

Until your wisdom flows in us

We were ungrateful

Until we gazed on Calvary

We were bound

Until you came to set us free

We were hopeless

Until we found our hope in thee

We were blind

Until you gave us light to see

We were afflicted

Until you heard your children's cries

We were dead

Until you said to us "Arise! Arise!"

We were hungry

Until you fed us from your hand

We were lost

Until you led us to the promised land

We are waiting

Until you come from heaven above

We are praying

Until you crown us with your love

Yes LORD today and everyday let me be ever mindful of your presence in my life and the great care You have for me. Yesterday was a dark day and it rained hard and heavy through out the night...and during the night I was awakened by howling winds and booming thunder. As fear began to take over because of the severity of the storm I prayed...soon it was morning, the sun was shining, light filtered its way through my windows... JESUS had brought me through again. In all of life storms HE is faithful to deliver us and bring us through!!

God Bless
