

Scriptures and Doctrine :: Woman teachings

Woman teachings - posted by shaoling (), on: 2012/1/11 15:22

blessing my brothers , according to John MacArthur , women are not allowed to teach , yet he implies the fact that if the bible is being textually studied scripture cannot be brought from the past to make an application to present , yet it was in the past and it is to date same biblical true , commonly made mistake its to said or think something its old fashion , and if taken out of context we can make up any type of doctrines. I personally believe that the Woman were given same Holy Ghost , and God talks to them in various ways , so if God talks to them they have good doctrine and a proper teaching from God.
