In 1956 five missionary men were speared to death by the Aucas Indians in South America. One of those men was the father of 5-year-old Steve Saint. Today Mincaye, the man who killed Steve's father, has become his brother (or rather, grandfather) in Christ. You can see Steve share his testimony alongside the very man who murdered his father. This is a remarkable story – and will encourage you! http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Dx1q_ChBxSg&feature=related

Steve Saint's story has taken an exciting turn: making technology adapted for the jungle – so that the jungle people can use it to spread the gospel to their own people: Steve Saint and the story of I-TEC, part 1 <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yfcOpy8z3fM>

This may not be Chitty chitty bang bang – but it's close. Here is the flying car in operation – an “airplane” made especially for the jungle people:

Enjoy what God has been doing as a result of a terrible tragedy many years ago!!
