Hello Everyone:

I believe I was led to this site in an effort to help me grow spiritually and ask the many questions that come up regarding my newfound Christian faith. I have such a desire to understand, know, learn and share, but I don't have many people I can really sit with and talk to at length on subjects that come up during the course of the week. I'm looking forward to being a part of the forums and reading what others are experiencing and learning as well as posting my own challenges and questions for input and feedback. I'm very grateful for a site like this. Can't wait to get to know you all.

please feel free to ask me anything about anything you wish as it pertains to your christian walk. i have experienced much in life but nothing compares to the power of the resurrection of jesus christ in this life. i am not judgemental or condemning, but all is set by the word and the word alone in the life of a christian. i hope to be of help to you, by christ in me, as a fellow christian.

Thank you Greg (if I may be so informal and use your first name) for recommending some sermons to listen to. I listened to the first one last night and it was just amazing to experience God's timing in my life regarding this particular message. I have been dealing with an issue in my life and hearing this message particularly last night was a truly sent message from God. I am in awe even this morning just thinking about how much I needed to hear that message and how I happened to come to this site and how the message was in your list and the title alone caught my eye.
