I was logging out to early when I saw the Hello all. What a blessing a parent receives when their child walks with Christ. Nothing else compares. A very warm welcome.

Hello Charlie Ann! I don't think I know Mike Compton, but I am sure it would be great to meet him sometime. If you told me you were a daughter of the King of kings, I would know your family relations better. Welcome to the rest of us. This website is like the narrow way. Avoid the pitfalls and stumbling blocks and you will find a real blessing in Christ here. Stay encouraged to obey the Lord every day!
