Over the past few centuries, science can be said to have gradually chipped away at the traditional grounds for believing in God. Much of what once seemed mysterious — the existence of humanity, the life-bearing perfection of Earth, the workings of the universe — can now be explained by biology, astronomy, physics and other domains of science.

Although cosmic mysteries remain, Sean Carroll, a theoretical cosmologist at the California Institute of Technology, says there's good reason to think science will ultimately arrive at a complete understanding of the universe that leaves no grounds for God whatsoever.

"Will Science Someday Rule Out the Possibility of God?"

It already has. This was the intent of the Religion Darwinism, which was spawned around Nietzsche's profound declaration that "God is Dead", bolstered by Marx's Social engineering philosophy that Man must Rule himself as the only right; IE: Secular Humanism.

This is Satan's Gospel. Man is a law unto himself. The Democratic National Convention just held in N. Carolina, just trumpeted the one and same cause as a matter of faith. God's name is irrelevant and inconsequential, and IN GOD, WE DO NOT TRUST!...making it a policy not to pray, or mention HIM as a reality; either at the convention, or within the government of Barak Hussein Obama..

Our educational system, by Law, is required to teach our children the non-existence of God, extending secular Darwinism into every field of study, and educational reasoning, and by it, annihilate every aspect of the Moral Nature of God to man.

The Law of the Bible and the teachings of Jesus, now become faulty and archaic superstition; while the realities of Darwinism dictate that I am born the way that I am...just DNA's in the soup, and homosexual perversion is no perversion at all; I was born that way from my gene-pool...on and on and on.*****

"Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things."

That Darwinism at it's peak, proclaiming the whys of it's philosophy. Here, there is no possibility that God is real and ALIVE, is there?

Jesus is alive, and seated at the right hand of God...and Heaven is as real as you live now, as is that terrible Lake of Fire.

"Fear God, and keep His commandments; THIS is the whole duty of man!"...Solomon
