CC's Message, "And The Word Of The Lord Came", on: 2012/10/2 19:41

Has anyone taken the time to listen to Carter's Latest message entitled, "And the Word of the Lord came"?

It spoke to me in huge volumes, how we miss God speaking and moving on with Him because we believe our theology is correct, every T is crossed etc... and we can't hear God speaking because of these hindrances. Theology is good, we need it, but something is wrong when that is all we have. It's not enough to fill our brains with knowledge, when God wants to take us further, like stepping out by faith, which is pretty scary in itself. The brother challenged me.

Worth the hearing or watching.
