How Shall We Then Live

This message is from the 2012 Olivet Convocation in Ohio. This was not the last message of the conference (it was next to last), but it was the message that asked the question that every conference should ask: so what? How do we live this out? Phil Norcom opened with passages in Mt 24, 25 and Joel 3. A blessed dialogue among brothers ensued.

-----Reggie Kelly

Reggie is best known to most of us as a close friend and theological companion of the late Art Katz (1929-2007). Reggie was saved in 1969 as part of the Jesus People movement of the 60s. He married his wife, Connie in 1969, and she followed him in baptism and service. A voracious hunger for God and truth followed. In 1975 he met Art Katz and attended the first Holy Convocation meetings in Minnesota, and many thereafter. Over the past 25 years, he had the privilege to accompany Art on many trips to foreign places. Reggie was a key participant at the Prophetic Schools that were held annually at the Ben Israel lodge. He and his wife Connie have been married for 42 years and have been blessed with 6 children and 10 grandchildren. They still live in Laporte, Minnesota. -----Phil Norcom

Phil came to know the Lord during the Jesus Movement back in the early 70s. Since that time, God has progressively used him as a Bible teacher while cultivating a burning passion for the Jewish people, that they might recognize Jesus as their promised Messiah. God has gifted and led him to do "the work of an evangelist" in this regard. Most recently, and in keeping with his calling and burden, God has laid it upon Phil's heart to facilitate this End Time Holy Convocation in preparation "for such a time as this". He currently works as an energy consultant and lives with his wife of 36 years, Thelma, in North Canton, Ohio having been blessed with six children.
