

Welcome & Intro :: Hi everyone!

Hi everyone! - posted by GraceofGod (), on: 2005/3/23 10:43

I'm new and would like to introduce myself and begin to attempt navigating around this site. I listen to the sermons regularly. I like Leonard Ravenhill's sermons and had never heard of him before finding Sermon Index. I am new at using the computer, so there is a lot I don't understand as far as the different options when posting, how to reply to a post, etc. It's probably easier than it seems right now as I've been learning a lot that way online. How do I fill in my profile, where is it? Glad to be here. See you around!

Welcome to SermonIndex! I am so glad that you have been listening to Leonard Ravenhill, what sermon has touched you the most so far? It's great to have you posting on the forums and sharing with the community. Have you heard the "ten shekels and a shirt" by Paris Reidhead?

Welcome! This is the best online library of what I call "classical" preachers that I have found. I pray that you are as blessed by this site as I have been. It is a rich gold mine for spiritual wealth, dig deep!

Thanks for the warm welcome.

I really appreciate Leonard Ravenhill's simple and clear way of preaching and urging us on toward what really matters as a believer under the guidance of the Spirit of God. No magic, no tricks, just the power and truth of God. I have not been keeping track of titles of sermons, I'm sort of a scatter-brain, but will probably be able to answer better in the future. I do remember listening to "Ten Shekels and a Shirt" by Paris Reidhead, though. Very strong, passionate sermon!

If you see this post, are there any instructions on posting on this site? I'm a little lost and don't know if I'm doing things correctly.

Thanks so much. I see what you mean by "classical" preachers. I really appreciate listening to them when there are so many strange things being preached in the name of Christ, at least around here. Digging on...
