Saints,

Josh Parsley and his small family feel the call of God to go to Loja, Ecuador that has just 1% Christian. I have seen this call of God on His life to speak spanish and reach out to these people very clearly for many years when I met with him in person also. He is working under the missionary organization SIM which has its roots with Andrew Murray and other god ly Christian leaders.

Josh has been blessed and a part of SermonIndex for many years being encouraged by the messages and saints here on the forums. As well as being an open air preacher in his area in AR, USA.

Please pray for him and consider to support them:

What will our future ministry look like?

We will come alongside churches in the Loja area and help disciple and mentor new believers. The Loja, Ecuador area j ust has around 1% evangelical Christians. (See JoshuaProject.net) Yet many are responding to the Gospel through vari ous ministries that SIM already has in place such as radio, English ministry, coffee house/student ministry, and medical outreach. We believe that fulfilling the great commission is found in discipling believers to maturity. Our ministry may in clude starting discipleship programs or leading existing ones. Our burden is to see God bring these new believers and c hurches into a depth and maturity of the faith.
