

General Topics :: Forgetting what is behindForgetting what is behind, on: 2013/11/12 7:29

Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead. Phil 3:13 Paul sees himself as a runner in a race exerting all his strength and pressing on with intense concentration in order not to fall short of the goal that Christ has set for his life. Throughout our lives all kinds of distractions and temptations such as life's worries, riches and evil desires threaten to choke off our commitment to the Lord. What is needed is a forgetting what is behind the corrupt world and our old life of sin and a striving for final salvation in Christ first and foremost our citizenship as Christians is in heaven, not of this world; become strangers and aliens on the earth In regard to our lives walk, values and direction, heaven is our home. We have been born from above our names are re written on heavens register my live will be guided by heavenly standards.