I know many people will discuss issues on here, and add the disclaimer: "I know I dont have the corner on truth".

Well, this may be true for some, but not for me. I do have the corner on truth. When I discover something in the scripture s, I know for certain that it is truth. I know that my interpretation of scripture is true and perfect. No matter what issue we are discussing on here... be it tongues, Bible versions, abortion or war... I know I am right.

Those who oppose my views and opinions are either not reading the Bible, or they are reading the Bible thru deceived e yes. There are some who do share my opinions on most issues, and they are the ones who are not decieved.

I think everyone here would do well to heed my arguments. To oppose them is to oppose God.

I am going to assume that someone has hacked your account - since this declaration is so far from humble, I cannot ima gine a child of God, not even an apostle daring to make such a bold statement about their own flawlessness.

Wow. Must be a hack.

Doesn't the Pope say this same thing?

The Bible is truth, not you, Krispy.

The Holy Spirit teaches all things, but we can make errors when it comes to interpretations. If something is clearly said in the Bible, it is true. If it is not so clear, then people begin to bump heads. The Bible is truth, and our job is to be sensit ive to the Spirit's guidance, ask for wisdom, and learn from one another. Not everyone has got it perfect, but God.

Sometimes I may believe one thing strongly, and later a brother who has been taught by the Holy Spirit on the subject wi ll correct me. Even John Wesley and Leonard Ravenhill didn't have everything right. Can we not make mistakes?

Hopefully you are right, Dann!

Exactly what in scripture isn't clear? It all seems pretty simple to understand. The Spirit will lead you into all truth... right?

2Tm 3:16 - All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

If this is true, then a true Christian will understand all scripture.

No one has been hacking in on my name, at least not as far as I know!

Surely you understand that God did not bring the Israelites into Canaan in a day? He brought them in bit by bit. Do you honestly imagine that God has revealed all truth to you? You have nothing more to learn?

Surely, with your perfect knowledge you have read, "Do not set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Do not be wise in your own opinion - Romans 12:16b.

How does the Spirit interpret that verse in the light of your profound self assurance?

Personally april fools jokes not really that welcome on this site, especially if its done in this manner. These discussions are archived on the site and are read by 100's after the fact, therefore it is very important to remember that its not us we are affecting but many OTHERS with our conversations. I hope you are not fully serious about this but if you are I think that you need to start discussing your interpretation of Scriptures on another internet forum.

Community Rules: It is very important to note that you are joining a vibrant community of believers across the entire world. The main reason for the discussion forums being on this site in the first place is for discussions revolving around the audio sermon speakers and the themes and topics they bring up. Of course it has expanded to more but the whole underlying principle needs to be EDIFICATION. uhmmm... APRIL FOOLS!

C'mon sermonindex... let me have a little fun. There's enough people on here that have accused me of not having a sense of humor... I've just proven they're wrong.

It was funny... laugh. :-P

Brother Dann... did you know the word "gullible" is not in the dictionary? LOL

I posted this incase you didn't see: These discussions are archived on the site and are read by 100's after the fact, therefore it is very important to remember that its not us we are affecting but many OTHERS with our conversations.

I know its fun to joke around but possibly private emails and messengers are better to do this with. There are some time s for jokes on SermonIndex but I do think the majority of the time there is a seriousness due to the content of the site and the gravity of the need for revival and spiritual awakening.

I can understand that, bro... but for the last couple days things have been so serious here due to the Terry Shaivo death, the pope, discussions of the war in Iraq... I just thought I'd lighten the mood around here a little. I dont think anyone was offended by this joke... if anyone was, well, I apologize.

But it was pretty funny!

I don't know what to make of these statements, Krispy. For one, I think you might just be joking and putting up a bait. B ut if you're serious, it may well be helpful if you read your post again and take a long hard look beyond, to where this line of thinking finally brings you.

Consider what Paul said:For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but th en shall I know even as also I am known. (1 Cor 13:12) Obviously, he speaks of increasing knowledge here as he doe s in Colossians 1:10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, an d increasing in the knowledge of God and in 2 Peter 3:18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord a Well, its interesting that you ask. You have your opinions and I have mine, you are very capable of telling folk exactly where you are coming from and why you believe what you believe, and you know what? You'll tell them so. Did I forget to mention that you will tell them so, well you'll tell them so.

SO I decided, to tell you so, I'll remind you again:

Like a madman shooting
firebrands or deadly arrows
19 is a man who deceives his neighbor
and says, "I was only joking!" Proverbs 26:18,19

Which do you prefer a spade or a shovel?

Coming out of the WOF you should now the power of the tongue. 8-)

Talk like this is reserved for INSTANT MESSENGERS and PRIVATE EMAILS. personally when I look at this forum thread its junk to me and its worth deleting it all, there is no edifying content to it for people that are going to view it afterwards on the site.

I don't mean to be harsh in saying this but really if you are looking to primarily joke around there are other places to do that. The only thing of redemable value is this Scripture which I think we should all pray over and actually treat as the Word of God to us today:

Like a madman shooting
firebrands or deadly arrows
19 is a man who deceives his neighbor
and says, "I was only joking!" Proverbs 26:18,19

Re: Your the mod bro, on: 2005/4/1 20:36

Brother Greg

This website, this forum was created by the inspiration of the holy Ghost that was given to you and you received it from Him and have given it back to Him by sharing it with the world, namely the household of faith.

You need to be harsh to maintain sensibility and soberity. Somethings can not be left unsaid, it must be said.

This thread should be deleted with a warning to all that such behaviour will not be tolerated.

You need to uphold this standard or it will be overrun, but if you nip it in the bud, it will flourish.

Well does that mean I will have to hang up my keyboard? I have a gift as a Christian Comedian. :-P

Re: office joke, on: 2005/4/1 21:06

Mr Bill

Where in the word of God is the gift or the office of a "Christian Comedian"?

Since there is none, you would be classified as a mere Joker or Jest.

Please don't take that as an offence, that is just the way it is.

Karl

Re: - posted by MrBillPro (), on: 2005/4/1 21:11

I did not say it was a gift from God "just a gift"

Does that help some? Lol
